

SIXTEEN MEN ARE KILLED

Explosion in a Mine Deals Death to Workmen.

DUBOIS, Pa., April 28.—Sixteen men were killed and one will die as the result of an explosion at the Eleanor shaft, near Bi Run.

The shaft is located one and a half miles from Big Run on the Buffalo, Rochester and Pittsburgh railroad, twelve miles south of here. It is in an isolated part of the country, and the explosion, which occurred last night, was not known in this city until today.

The mine is owned and operated

TWELVE MEN TO PASS STRAINED A CHORD IN NECK

Mrs. Lena Koehn Called Upon to Answer For Killing Her Husband.

MRS. LENA KOEHN.

The trial of Lena Koehn for the shooting of her husband, Edward Koehn, last February, was resumed in the Superior Court this afternoon. Twelve jurors were selected to try the case: George Chase, D. H. Cunningham, Elliott Jordan, Otto Niehaus, William T. Webb, W. H. E. Graves, J. Madden, Charles Shoemaker, Patrick Hickey, R. F. Phillips, Justus Overucker and W. F. Neill.

Testimony is to be taken in the matter this afternoon when a continuance will be had until Monday morning.

Mrs. Koehn was again in court and exhibits little or no signs of worry over her position. The question of how she came to fire four shots while her husband only shot one at her is a point the prosecution hopes to show indicates that she, rather than her husband, was the aggressor. Her explanation of the affair is that her husband threatened her with death, having accused her of infidelity, and that when he got his pistol she got hers, and simply got into action quicker and "beat him out."

The prosecution's theory is that he was shot while in a closet, and that he was surprised and drew his revolver and fired a shot while being fired upon. The two had only been married six weeks, and the husband had come home to get his clothes preparatory to leaving his wife for good.

The witnesses summoned in the case are C. McSweeney, J. Collins, G. A. Doherty, Dr. W. A. Harvey, Peter Pagnetto of 779 Fifty-eighth street, Mrs. Christina Koehn, the mother of the dead man, who is now at the King's Daughters' Home; Herman and Minnie Drees of 791 Fifty-eighth street, Miss Bertha Kruger, Miss Amelia Kruger and Charles Kruger of 780 Fifty-eighth street; P. A. Hairland, a surveyor; O. D. Tobin, Captain A. Wilson, J. J. D. Kite and W. B. Quigley of the police department; Dr. O. D. Hamilton and Ed. J. Crossman of 1453 Twelfth street.

None of these witnesses saw the shooting, however, and can only testify to what they know of the relations of the pair, and what was said by Mrs. Koehn immediately after the shooting. The fatal quarrel occurred in the quiet of a Sunday morning, and only themselves were in the house. Koehn had stayed with his mother in San Francisco Saturday and returned to the home at Fifty-eighth street, near Grove, at Golden Gate, about 8 o'clock for his things. The shots were heard about 9 o'clock and shortly afterwards Mrs. Koehn went to a neighbor and told what she had done, stating that she was forced to shoot in self defense.

vicines received here from Hodeida say the revolutionists have surrendered the town of Manakha, an important strategic position between Hodeida and Sanaa. PADEREWSKI GOES TO PIECES

Rendering Difficult Composition.

NIAGARA FALLS, N. Y., April 28.—Paderewski, the pianist, has cancelled his engagement in this city and left this afternoon for Boston.

In London, Ont., last night, he strained a chord in his neck while rendering a difficult composition, and today his condition was such that Dr. Francis Fronczak, of Buffalo, was called. Upon the physician's advice, Paderewski has cancelled all the remaining engagements of his tour in this country. Dr. Fronczak's diagnosis of Paderewski's ailment was to the effect that he is suffering from a severe attack of neuritis.

RUSSIA BEGINS FASTING

Superstitious See Signs of Approaching Evil.

ST. PETERSBURG, April 28.—Three days hard fasting preceding Easter, accompanied by solemn services commemorative of Christ's passion began today. Business of every character ceased and all the government departments were closed.

The alarming reports circulated during the last few days apparently had little effect on the size of the crowds that thronged the churches where the tragedy of Calvary was vividly re-enacted.

The day was also marked by the advance of the traditional ceremonies of freeing birds, lighting bonfires and placing holy bread in bins, but the bright sunshine did not fail to make a deep impression upon the superstitious in the midst of gloomy forebodings of evil being an augury of drought and crop failure which in Russia is synonymous with famine and disaster.

NUGGETS OF GOLD FOUND

Rich Specimens Uncovered By Dredger in Feather River.

MARYSVILLE, Cal., April 28.—Rich specimens of free gold have been brought up by the new levee dredger now operating in the Feather River at Yuba City.

A nugget of considerable size and value and pieces of quartz studded with gold have been picked up from several bucketfuls of sand and gravel deposited by the dredger.

Dredge mining men are watching this work closely and it is quite likely that claims will be filed.

The dredger is of clam-shell design and the shell holds three cubic yards. At times this shell brings up nothing but clear black sand.

SENATOR'S FATHER DIES

WASHINGTON, April 28.—James P. Dooliver, of Morgantown, West Virginia, father of Senator John F. Dooliver, of Iowa, died at the residence of his son today.

Mr. Dooliver was 90 years of age and was in Washington on a visit.

MRS. SMITH STANDS BY HER SISTER.

Declines to Answer Any Question That Would Tend to Injure Nan's Defense.

NEW YORK, April 28.—The story told by Mrs. J. Morgan Smith on the witness stand yesterday afternoon and the prospect of her cross-examination by counsel for the defense today served to intensify interest in the case of Nan Patterson, who is now on trial in the Court of General Sessions, charged with the murder of Caesar Young. The appearance of Mrs. Smith as a witness for the prosecution came in the nature of a surprise to the defense, Mr. Levy has said.

He professed to be very well satisfied with the move, however, and said that cross-examination of the witness would afford him an opportunity to place before the jury evidence which could not be produced in any other way. He also believes, he said, that the direct testimony of Mrs. Smith has only served to strengthen the case of the prisoner, as it supports in many important details the testimony given by Miss Patterson herself at the last trial, a portion of which was read to the jury yesterday.

DECLINED TO ANSWER.

In the course of his examination Mr. Rand asked Mrs. Smith if she had possessed all the information she has testified to in this trial all the time since she left New York last June. Mrs. Smith replied that she would like to answer the question, but feared it would tend to degrade and incriminate her, as she is under indictment for conspiracy.

The prosecutor then promised that if she would answer he would move next Monday to quash the indictment against her, but she declined to do so until she had an opportunity to consult counsel.

STANDS BY SISTER.

After she had consulted with her counsel, Mrs. Smith declined to answer the question. "I must stick to my sister," she told the prosecuting attorney as she resumed the stand.

"And you refuse to answer notwithstanding my promise in open court to have the indictment against you quashed?" asked Mr. Rand.

"I do."

"Again I ask, were you in New York on June 3?"

"I decline to answer because my position might tend to degrade and incriminate me."

Recorder Goff directed the witness to answer the question, saying that it called for an answer. She still declined to do so, saying:

"I must stick to my sister."

"Will you answer if the indictment for conspiracy on which you are held is dismissed now?" broke in Mr. Rand.

"No," replied the witness.

EXPECTED YOUNG.

The direct examination of Mrs. Smith, which was not completed yesterday, was resumed today. Mrs. Smith testified yesterday that Miss Patterson had expected Caesar Young to get a divorce from his wife and marry her. She, herself, believed that Young intended eventually to marry her sister until last May, when Leslie Coggins told her that Young did not intend to carry out the agreement. Miss Patterson became greatly excited when Coggins' statement was repeated to her.

Taking up the examination where it was interrupted by the adjournment last night, Mr. Rand said:

"Did not Coggins tell you that the best thing Young thought Nan could do was to accept Matt Trimble's offer of marriage?"

"He did not say anything like that to me," replied Mrs. Smith.

"Did Miss Patterson say that the cause of her emotion was that Coggins had misrepresented Young's intentions toward her?"

"She did not say so in those words, but I knew it."

Mrs. Smith said Nan refused to believe the story told by Coggins. She was excited, the witness said, because she was disappointed at the postponement of her marriage to Young.

"She did not say anything about her future intentions?"

"No."

"She did not tell you what she was going to do?"

"No."

NAN FRANTIC.

"And yet you described her as 'frantic' and 'desperate.'"

"Yes."

"When you wrote the letter to Young were you in a state of feeling brought on by what Nan had told you?"

"Yes, my sister is not responsible for that letter."

"Did that letter represent truthfully the state of your mind?"

"It did."

"Did it represent Nan's state of mind?"

"This question was not answered. Mr. Rand here offered the intercepted letter which Mrs. Smith sent to Young, which was ruled out yesterday and again it was rejected by Recorder Goff.

MAJOR GENERAL LEE IS STRICKEN.

Suffers Stroke of Apoplexy Aboard Train--Condition Doubtful.

WASHINGTON, April 28.—Major General Fitzhugh Lee, U. S. Army, retired, was stricken with apoplexy, the entire left side being affected, at 3 o'clock this morning.

General Lee was on a train en route from Boston to Washington. The train had just left Harlem River when the stroke came. The train bearing the General arrived in Washington shortly after ten o'clock.

Under the direction of Major Kean U. S. A. of the Surgeon General's office, the patient was removed to Providence Hospital.

The news of the General's condition had preceded him to Washington and many of his army and personal friends were at the Pennsylvania station to meet him.

Included among them were Major Michie, of the army general staff, Major Kean, and Major Mason of the medical department, Dr. St. George Tucker, of George Washington University, Dr. Holmes Conrad of Virginia, and Dr. F. Fowler.

Dr. Tucker invited General Lee to occupy quarters at his residence here. The General was conscious and received Dr. Tucker in the car when the visitation was extended.

He replied smilingly: "I am in charge of this man, Kean, and he says I must go to the hospital, and I guess I will have to acquiesce."

WIFE NOTIFIED.

Mrs. Lee, who is at Fort Ogden, Pa., with her daughter, has been notified, as has also the son George, who is in San Francisco, preparing to sail for the Philippines.

The other, who is in the Philippines, has been cabled of his father's condition.

A physician was taken aboard the train at Jersey City. At Philadelphia he gave place to another who accompanied the General to Baltimore, where still another was taken aboard and made the trip to Washington. Since the first stroke no change for the worse has taken place.

General Lee had been spending a few days in Boston and was returning to Washington on his way to join Mrs. Lee.

Major Kean of the medical corps of the army announced this afternoon on leaving the bedside of General Lee that there was no apparent change in his condition; that the general is conscious, but it will be impossible to tell what the outcome is to be for several hours. The entire left side is paralyzed.

ADDRESS IN BOSTON.

BOSTON, April 28.—General Lee was in Boston yesterday to advocate the representation of Massachusetts at the Jamestown exposition in 1907. He appeared before the legislative committee on federal relations during the morning and made a strong address in favor of having Massachusetts erect a state building at Jamestown. He left here last evening apparently in his usual health.

URIBURU TO TELL STORY IN COURT

People Complete Their Case and Call For the Defense.

[Special to THE TRIBUNE.]

SAN FRANCISCO, April 28.—With the damaging testimony of a bank clerk and a detective that was taken this morning the prosecution closed in the two charges of felony embezzlement against Julio Urriburu, former diplomat and son of an ex-president of Argentina.

The bank clerk swore positively that no money had been transmitted through his institution either February 21st or March 21st from Luisa Tetrazzini, the famous prima donna, to the Sorelle Damino at Milan; the detective testified that Urriburu had told him and others that he had written and signed the check and receipt that he gave to Tetrazzini in lieu of coin.

CASE CONTINUED.

Now it is up to Urriburu's attorneys to offer a defense and for that purpose Attorney Jake Meyers asked for, and was granted a continuance for two weeks. Meyers has sent to Argentina and Mexico for evidence that he says will contradict the fair Luisa, and to Milan for additional facts.

More than that, he says, he already has evidence "up his sleeve," to use his own expression, that will go a long way toward clearing his client. What the nature of this evidence is he refuses to state. He says his client did not steal the diva's money while acting as her financial agent.

Meyers succeeded this morning in securing a reduction of bail from $10,000 to $2000 cash, and he says he will soon raise that amount and have his client out of jail.

THE BAIL.

"The cause of the delay in securing bail," said Meyers, after the adjournment, "was a desire on the part of Urriburu not to let his family know of his plight. We could easily have wired for a sufficient amount, to secure his release, but his mother recently died and he did not wish to add this trouble to that of the family bereavement. Friends advised him to take this course and they promised to raise the necessary money here, but they have been tardy in doing so. If they do not do it soon we will be forced to call upon the family for funds."

The hearing this morning was decided of the interest manifested before, for the stars were not in evidence. Only one of the principals of this drama of stage life was present and he, the prisoner, paid little attention to what was going on about him. He sat with an elbow on a table absently twisting his moustache and gazing vacantly into space. His demeanor was that of utter dejection.

Tetrazzini, the adored one, did not appear and the little tenor, Bazelli, was nowhere to be seen.

FIRST WITNESS.

The first witness called was Attilio Chiappari, a dapper little fellow who serves as receiving teller at the Swiss-American Bank. In answer to Attorney Heynemann, Chiappari said:

"Urriburu came to the bank Feb. 21st and secured two drafts for $3,120 and $1950 respectively. That was a total of $5,070, or 23,175 francs. I gave him a check for $4,497.50 and the balance of $572.50 in United States gold coin."

Heynemann produced the receipt for 2000 francs which it is alleged Urriburu gave to the song queen.

"Do you recognize that receipt as one used by the bank?" he asked.

"I do," was the reply.

"Is the handwriting on that receipt that of any officer or employee of the bank?"

"It is not," replied the witness, promptly and positively.

"Did Urriburu on February 21 transmit through your bank or through any correspondent, of your bank, any money whatever?"

"He did not."

"You are positive of that?"

"I am; such a transaction would have been recorded on the books, and there is no such record."

On cross-examination, Chiappari said he knew positively that no employee of the bank had written the receipt and that he had carefully gone over the books and found that no such business had ever been transacted.

"You don't know of your own knowledge, do you?" persisted Meyers.

"No," was the answer.

WHY HE DID NOT STOP

NEW YORK, April 28.—Because he considered the yacht in no immediate danger, had a perishable cargo which would make any delay on his own part dangerous, and had no towing gear, are the reasons given by Captain Hoteville of the fruit steamer S. Oteri for his failure to go to the assistance of President Roosevelt's yacht, Sybil, when she was lying disabled south of Bodies Island.

The Oteri arrived here from Banes, Cuba, and for the first time since the incident Captain Hoteville had an opportunity to give his version of the affair. He said:

"We were steaming along under full headway when we sighted flare lights on a vessel ahead. This vessel was about eight miles off the land and sixteen miles south of Bodies Island. The night was clear and the weather good. As we approached I pulled the bell to stop the engine. The flare lights and before I could communicate with the engineer we were out of range of hearing. As soon as the flare broke I made ready to hail the distressed craft. A hail came 'Will you stop?' I answered 'No, I cannot; drop your anchor; you are in fourteen fathoms of water; I will report you at Cape Henry.'"

"I reported the ship's distress to the pilot and told him to send a tug."

"We had a perishable cargo on board. The yacht was in no danger and as I had no towing gear I did the best thing I could under the circumstances."

DEAD COVER

Capital City of Yemen Capitulates to Insurgents.

HOEDEIDA, Yemen Province, Arabia, Wednesday, April 28.—Sanaa, the capital city of Yemen Province, capitulated to the insurgents during the night of April 20. The revolutionists are now proceeding to besiege Manakha.

The latter has a garrison of 5,000 men, but the troops are mutinous. Jews who left Sanaa before the surrender and who have arrived at Hodeida, say the town was subjected to constant night attacks, the garrison was hard pressed and provisions were exhausted.

The scene of the fight of March 30 southward of Sanaa, when the Syrian reserves went to the relief of Sanaa and were crushingly defeated, was strewn with dead soldiers and animals.

NELSON TO FIGHT HERRERA

DANE AND MEXICAN TO MEET AT BUTTE ON JUNE 13.

BUTTE, Montana, April 28.—The Butte Athletic Club has matched Battling Nelson and Aurelio Herrera to box twenty rounds, at 130 pounds in this city for Miners' Union day, June 13th. The boxers are to get 60 per cent of the receipts, the winner to take 35 and the loser 25.

WASHINGTON, April 28.—James P. Dooliver, of Morgantown, West Virginia, father of Senator John F. Dooliver, of Iowa, died at the residence of his son today.

Mr. Dooliver was 90 years of age and was in Washington on a visit.

RUN ON BANK IS STOPPED

WASHINGTON, April 28.—National Bank Examiner Bosworth telegraphs the Comptroller of the Currency from Milwaukee that the run on the First National Bank has entirely stopped and no further trouble is feared. Mr. Bosworth adds that the defalcation will not exceed published figures.

SHERMAN, CLAY & CO.
BROADWAY AT THIRTEENTH

WARRANT FOR HER ARREST

MISS GRACE McNAUGHTON IN TROUBLE IN SAN FRANCISCO.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 28.—Grace McNaughton Chambers, who figured prominently in the police circles of Oakland as the result of a charge of robbery against her by Mrs. Thomas Mein, is being sought on a warrant issued by Judge Fritz to answer a charge of disturbing the peace. The complainants this time are Mrs. Harriet Zensen of 19 Rausch street and Mrs. Minnie Hayward of 117 Oak street, who also charge Mrs. Emma McNaughton and Mrs. Maude Ramsay, with disturbance. Mrs. McNaughton is the wife of Harry McNaughton, brother of Grace McNaughton Chambers, and Mrs. Ramsay is the latter's sister. Grace McNaughton annexed the name of Chambers by marrying the Oakland detective who brought her back from Los Angeles to answer the robbery charge.

Harry McNaughton was arrested on Wednesday at 19 Lily avenue on a charge of failure to provide for his child, and this is the cause of the other warrants. When Grace learned that her brother was under arrest she and her sister and sister-in-law, Emma, went to the home of Mrs. Zensen and indignantly demanded her reason for the arrest of Harry McNaughton. Not being satisfied with the answer, it is alleged that they proceeded to demolish things. Mrs. Minnie Hayward was present when the three women arrived at Mrs. Zensen's. They accused her of being the cause of McNaughton's troubles, and it is said, threatened her life. Mrs. Zensen attempted to put the women out, but was put to ignominious flight by the threatened use of batons.

Meanwhile Fernia Hazel McNaughton, the six-month-old baby of Harry and Emma McNaughton, the cause of all the trouble, is being held as host-age for board by a Mrs. Cook on Folsom street. Mrs. Cook says that she is attached to the baby and is willing to keep it, but will not let it go until the McNaughtons until the board bill is paid.

“ROBBERY” NO MYSTERY

DETECTIVES SAY YOUNG MAN WAS NOT HELD-UP; FELL FROM CAR.

The mystery of a midnight hold-up on the Twelfth street car in which William Hoffschneider and two footpads are alleged to have figured has been cleared up by the detectives of the local police department and the result of their investigations places the blame on Hoffschneider, son of the man alleged to have been held up, in a light which only extreme confusion can explain.

It seems that the senior Hoffschneider was not held up at all, nor was the son. Detective Shoney, who has been very diligent in the light on the mystery, investigated until he is satisfied that the younger Hoffschneider magnified the falling of the Hayes street car in San Francisco into a robbery and the loss of $7 by the sandwich route.

When young Hoffschneider told the story of the hold-up he gave the name of his father. He then exhibited a deep blush on the back of the head, stating that he represented the spot where the sandwich came into contact with his head. He then exhibited a purse stating that the $7 had been taken from it.

His own story was that he had taken the Key Route home and as he was walking along the Twelfth street car was sandwiched.

Shoney's search for the robbers ended in him finding that young Hoffschneider had been in San Francisco, had fallen off a car and bumped his head and had probably lost the $7 in a dizzy whirl around the metropolis across the bay by night.

A. JONAS RETURNS FROM EASTERN TRIP.

Prominent Merchant Tells of Other Cities—Plans Many Improvements.

A Jonas, the well-known proprietor of the Hub Clothing Store, at the corner of Eleventh and Broadway, and President of the Merchants' Exchange, returned yesterday from the East.

Mr. Jonas was accompanied by his wife and daughter Gertrude, and has been absent from the city for the past two months, and returns to his business with renewed strength and energy.

In speaking of his trip to the East, Mr. Jonas said:

"On leaving Oakland, I went directly to New Orleans to attend the constitutional convention of the Independent Order of B'nai B'rith. This convention meets every five years, and is the representative organization of the Jewish faith; its objects are charity, benevolence and fraternity, on the broadest lines of humanity. They maintain orphan asylums, old people's homes, technical schools, and last but not least, the hospital for consumptives at Denver. This hospital is absolutely non-sectarian, and is conducted on the broadest lines. The convention voted for its support $40,000, besides voting large sums for the aid of other charities in which it is interested."

IN THE SOUTH.

"While in New Orleans we were treated most royally, in the fashion for which the Southern people are noted. We were kept on the go from the time we arrived until we departed, and the remembrance of these pleasant days will long remain with me."

"One of the entertainments was a boat ride on the Mississippi, and the boats along the shore and in the harbor were beautifully decorated and saluted the boat carrying the delegates as it passed."

The convention was welcomed by the Governor of the State and the Mayor of the city, and during the convention the Grand Master of the Masonic order of Louisiana, paid a fraternal visit and wished the order of B'nai B'rith all possible success, congratulating it upon its success and its objects, and stating that the Masonic order was in sympathy with its Jewish brother."

GUESTS OF MR. NEWMAN.

"I found the people of the South most charitable, especially Isidor Newman and his family, who opened their home for us, and entertained us in most royal fashion. Mr. Newman also turned over to the order of B'nai B'rith, for its management, the technical school which he has built and equipped at an expense of more than $100,000."

"While not a public speaker, Mr. Newman made a very sympathetic speech and stated that he did not desire to wait until he dies to give this and other charities, but wants to see what he can do while he is yet living. He stated that from time to time he would not only help the Jewish order, but would do his utmost to help mankind in general."

From New Orleans I went to Washington, New York, Philadelphia and Boston.

IN WASHINGTON.
"In Washington every courtesy was shown us, and through the kindness of the Secretary of the Hon. Victor H. Metcalf, Mr. Clark, we visited the White House, the Congressional Library, which is a masterpiece, and other places of interest. Washington is certainly the cleanest city in the world."

"I also found New York a very clean and well governed city. While the political situation in New York is not familiar to me, I must state that it appears that whatever party or power is on top the city is well governed, and the laws well administered."

CONSOLIDATION.
"While in Denver I devoted considerable time to the study of the subject of consolidation, knowing that city had but recently adopted the plan which we hope to see adopted in Oakland at some later date."

"Niagara Falls and Suspension Bridge, which cities have been but lately consolidated, are good examples of this plan. I found that the people of Suspension Bridge, who were at first against consolidation, are now perfectly satisfied, and from personal interviews, I am convinced that the people of both towns were benefited."

"It is evident to me that consoli-

tion has not injured any of these cities."

"I was not particularly impressed by Atlanta and Chicago, and do not consider them so clean, so well governed nor in any respect up to the cities mentioned above."

"I found that all transportation facilities in the Eastern States are about on a level with those we have in California, and in some cases our railroad services of whatever nature are even better than those of the East."

"While the signs of the times are toward public ownership, it will nevertheless prove to be good public policy to encourage private enterprise and to offer liberal and broad terms to prospective undertakings."

"I am convinced that there is sufficient room in Oakland for another transcontinental road, and in my opinion it should be encouraged."

STORES OF OAKLAND.

"As far as the business of Oakland is concerned, we found that the stores of this city are as nicely stocked, equipped and managed as those of the Eastern cities. The prices are about the same, and in some cases local prices are even lower than those of the Eastern stores."

"Concerning my own business, I would say that, having succeeded in leasing my premises, and adjoining stores for a term of years, I have studied the field of the most modern stores, and am now prepared to renovate my present location, and equip it in the most modern style. As far as goods are concerned, I would say that I have made arrangements with the largest manufacturers of the East and will be able to carry the most fashionable goods, giving my customers the most reasonable prices thereon."

"I have also made arrangements with several of the large shoe manufacturers of Boston, and expect that when the fall season opens to be able to show up the best line of men's and boys' shoes ever brought to this market. We hope to be able to merit the confidence of our old patrons as we have in the past."

MERCHANTS' EXCHANGE.

"It gives me great pleasure to see that our fellow merchant and member of the Merchants' Exchange, the Hon. Frank K. Mott, has been inducted into the Mayor's chair. In the future as in the past, the administration will have the support and co-operation of the Merchants' Exchange, and there is no doubt but that the present administration will be conducted on purely business principles, and the Exchange will always be found ready and willing to be of any assistance possible."

LOOK OUT FOR THIS BOGUS COIN

Two small boys, who may be the go-between for a counterfeiting band, yesterday afternoon made a visit to Chinatown and successfully passed several bogus fifty cent pieces. Two of these have fallen into the possession of the police and a vigorous search is being made to ferret out the parties responsible for the circulation of the spurious coins.

The money in the possession of the police is a clever imitation as far as the face of it is concerned, but the milling is almost entirely lacking.

The boys, whose identity is unknown made five cent purchases in the places they visited. Just how extensive the operations are is not known, but the police are inclined to the belief that the counterfeiters are of a local production.

It is not likely that any one familiar with coins would be deceived by the imitations but the fact that young boys are distributing the money would have a tendency to divert suspicion.

FINAL VERDICT FOR F. J. BREARTY

WELL-KNOWN ATTORNEY CALLED BY DEATH AT COUNTY INFIRMARY.

Frank J. Brearty, the attorney, died today at the County Infirmary in the fifty-ninth year of his age.

Mr. Brearty was a member of the law firm of Batchelder & Brearty of this city, though for a number of years he practiced at the bar without association with any brother professional.

He was a native of Prince Edward's Island and had resided in this city for a number of years and was one of the best-known and most appreciated of the older practitioners.

He made a specialty of criminal law, and in this particular line was rated as among the shrewdest and most successful in his calling.

He made a specialty of raising new law points in cases, all of which caused the bench no small amount of research to pass upon intelligently, and many of them were sustained with positive benefit to the clients of the attorney.

Several years ago Mr. Brearty's health began to fail, and at various times since he has been compelled to abandon his practice and seek medical treatment at the infirmary.

Personally Mr. Brearty had many friends among practitioners at the bar, and none of them will have other than kind words to say of the departed.

VERDICT AGAINST WHITTELL

FLORENCE BOYERE IS GIVEN $500 BY THE JURY.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 28.—It took the jury just two and a half minutes yesterday to reach a verdict in favor of Miss Florence M. Boyere and against Attorney Charles F. Hanlon, counsel for George Whittell Jr., whose son, George Whittell Jr., entered into an alleged contract marriage with Miss Boyere. The alleged contract marriage was recently annulled by the court at the father's behest.

On resumption of the case Mr. Hanlon testified in full with regard to the objection made that the deposition was taken from the clerk's office in the old case of Whittell vs. Boyere. He stated that it was done in legal and proper form and upon an order of the court.

The case was then argued to the jury. Miss Boyere's counsel claiming that as long as she did not cause the publication to be made in the Whittell case she was entitled to her $500. The jury took this view and gave a verdict to her for the $500, with interest from May 10, 1904.

Mr. Hanlon asked for twenty days to enable him to appeal to the Supreme Court, stating that his client, Mr. Whittell, desired to move for a new trial and also to appeal. This time was granted.

Quite often people put altogether too much faith in the advertised qualities and virtues of certain specialties in groceries, and too little in their family grocer. This is not good policy. You have your grocer right at your door and can quickly and easily adjust every difficulty with him.

We have always aimed to do what is exactly right and the appreciation of our efforts is shown by the steady increase in our list of customers.

We want everybody to know that if it's from Russell's it's right—no matter what other name it may bear.

Question Legality to License Dirt Cart Wagons.

The question of whether the City Council did not illegally use its power in passing an ordinance making it necessary to pay a license to drive dirt wagons through the city is to be submitted to Judge Green upon a case appealed from the Police Court by J. Frendsen, a teamster sentenced to pay a fine of $6 for not obeying the ordinance.

A general statement of his position in the matter was made by Attorney Frendsen and he contends that the ordinance is one contrary to public policy and does not come within the powers of a police regulation, but is a tax for revenue and as such, the Council has no right to pass it.

The powers of the Council are limited to the passage of police regulations. The licensing of a saloon is a police regulation according to his argument. It is a privilege that may be withheld or given as seen fit by the Council, but not so with the licensing of a cement wagon. The driver of such a vehicle has a right to drive his wagon on and may demand a license. Under such a head this tax becomes one for revenue. As the Council may only tax privileges and not such occupations as it may not stop the right to tax these wagons it is claimed falls outside of its powers.

Another point made in this connection is the fact that it is unjust in its discrimination. It is alleged that if the driving of vehicles is to be taxed this should be done regardless of the kind of vehicle. It is claimed that where the Council made a distinction and taxed a cement wagon but said nothing about a lumber wagon, it made a provision directly against the constitution of the United States, which declares that laws must be uniform.

"We claim," said Frendsen, "that the Council when it singled out cement, coal, manure, and dirt wagons and placed a tax upon these wagons in the first place had no right to make such a law; in the second place that it is unconstitutional, because it is not uniform and is generally against public policy as the movement of these materials is a public necessity."

The District Attorney's office had not been apprised of the nature of the appeal and the matter was allowed to go over for a week in order to give Deputy T. W. Harris time to study up the case and prepare himself to combat the arguments set forth.

JOHN LYNCH IS DEAD

WELL KNOWN RESIDENT OF OAKLAND PASSES AWAY.

After suffering for a long time with a cancer, John Lynch, an employee of the United States Treasury Department, and an old resident of this city, died yesterday at his home, 222 Ninth street, at the age of 54 years.

Mr. Lynch was past grand president of the Y. M. C. and was supreme delegate to its last General Assembly. Mr. Lynch was a native of Boston, Mass., and leaves a wife, Catherine A. Lynch, and the following children: Mrs. O. O. Heydenfeldt, John J. Kathleen B. Lawrence, T. W. Veronica M. Monica H. and Leo Lynch.

Mr. Lynch resided in Oakland forty-nine years. The funeral will take place tomorrow from the Church of the Immaculate Conception at 10:30 a. m.

REPLACES GUNS.

HONGKONG, April 28.—The dockyard at Kowloon has replaced three 45-ton, wire-wound, 12-inch barbette guns of the British battleships Aislin and Glory. Experts consider this a notable achievement, showing the Kowloon dockyard as an important factor in the efficiency of the British far eastern squadron.

Russians Carry Provisions to Last Them Six Months.

KAMRANH BAY, via Saigon, Cochinchina, April 28.—The Russian squadron, with its transports, left its last stopping place Wednesday evening for an unknown destination.

The warships were provisioned for six months and it is thought here that they were bound for Vladivostok by way of the Pacific.

Four German colliers arrived at Kamranch Bay too late to proceed with the squadron but they subsequently received the same direction in order to catch up with it.

Vice-Admiral Nebogatoff division was expected to arrive yesterday in Indo-Chinese waters, where it is believed the admiral will receive instructions regarding the place where he is to effect a junction with Admiral Rojestvensky, whose squadron besides twenty-five warships, includes a repairing ship and a water tank ship.

LEVIES ON SMITH'S
PROPERTY HERE

The City and County of San Francisco has levied an attachment on a piece of property in the Broadway Terrace standing in the name of E. J. Smith for the sum of $3,112. The writ was issued by the Superior Court in San Francisco and will be used to offset as far as it will go the shortage of the defaulting tax collector.

The purchase of the William Reese property on Jackson street near Tenth by the Board of Education for $3500 of $2000 have been filed. The directors are J. A. Lightpipe, R. W. Myers, R. B. Myers, J. D. Hunter and Dudley Smith.

Ma B. Gentry has leased her store at 331 Washington street to Lutz & Lindner for two years at $35 a month.

Alfred I. McCourtney has sold his property on Telegraph street to the Realty Syndicate. The piece is 133 by 36 feet.

Carrie M. Robinson has let A. E. Broad the contract to build her a shingled cottage on the west side of Chapel street near Bancroft way in Berkeley to cost $1500.

W. I. Huff has leased a one-story brick building at 833 Broadway, to Sarah Walters for 66 months at a rental of $68 a month.

Mrs. C. Mangels and D. Steffens have given O. C. Gunderson a contract for the erection of two cottages of five rooms each on Teutonia Park in Alameda to cost $3450.

Charles Moim has agreed to sell to the Roman Catholic church a strip of land near the Catholic Cemetery near Hayward, about 162 feet fronting on the street leading to the cemetery, containing back to Sulphur creek for $1500. A survey is now being made.

PLAYS PART OF

BOY FOOLS INMATES OF DETENTION HOME—FINALLY TALKS.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 28.—Frank Bogtoshans, aged 16, who has been a circus rider and beggar, proved he had the capacity of a rare actor by playing the part of a deaf mute steadily for two months in the Boys' Detention Home.

Now, as far as the boys are concerned, he is monarch of all he surveys. He wears both blouse and pants of the only baseball suit among the fourteen delinquent boys. He appropriated most of the pie he told somebody else to steal. But two days ago Frank was only tolerated. Everybody supposed he was deaf and dumb.

It required an expert from Berkeley to suspect the deaf and dumb Frank. He was brought to the detention home by a policeman who heard the boy utter words in his sleep. When told, Frank wrote out an indignant denial. The deaf and dumb teacher from Berkeley, however, declared he was in full possession of his faculties. Since then the superintendent has been trying to get the truth from him.

Frank's father lives in Fayette, La., and his mother in dead. When Norris & Rowe's Circus came to town last fall he ran away with it, but he deserted the show in San Francisco because they let him ride bareback only when the stars was drunk. He had money, must for just three days' meals. He risked starvation on the third day and bought 50 cents' worth of food, selling them from house to house, and getting a meal and a bed as often as he disposed of his goods. Then he heard the juvenile officer was after him for begging. Before he was caught he made up his mind what to do. So he became dumb and apparently deaf.

"I didn't want to go to no reform school," he told superintendent Phelps yesterday, "but I didn't think they would send me to a deaf and dumb asylum. That would be worse, so I thought I'd show you I was faint."

Frank will be taken into the Juvenile Court today to account for his fraud. When his father hears from the officers will either send him home or find a place for him to work here.

COUNTESS LEONA SAID TO HAVE GONE AWAY WITH DEFAULTING TAX COLLECTOR.

Another Report is That Smith is Heading For the Orient—Additional Ten Thousand Shortage Found Today.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 28.—Acting Tax Collector James McCabe has discovered another shortage in the accounts of Tax Collector Smith, which will amount to $10,000. That money, too, was obtained by the collection of second installment taxes. Up to noon today a shortage of $68,439.35 had been discovered.

Startling revelations are expected today from the Grand Jury's investigation of Tax Collector Smith's default. The Treasurer's office will be given a thorough overhauling. Foreman Andrews believes that the amount of money stolen from the city will be several times the sum known now when the entire shortage is discovered.

When Smith fled from this city last Thursday he was accompanied by a beautiful but notorious woman, who was known in the tenderloin haunts as "Countess Leona." His baggage was sent to the ferry and he and the woman started for the South together.

The absconding official squandered the stolen money upon Lillian Leslie, the vaudeville singer, and upon the races at Oakland and Los Angeles. The Leslie woman placed the bets for him, he fearing that his attendance at the track would attract notice and suspicion. But Smith himself made frequent trips to Los Angeles and there plunged thousands at a wager on the horses.

The exact amount of the Tax Collector's peculations may not be determined for several days, but the amount is growing. The following amounts are at this time known to have been taken: $29,113.23, taxes collected from the Southern Pacific Company; $15,500.05, money paid to Smith by Deputy Treasurer Devoto on a worthless personal note; about $10,000, other taxes collected and entered as delinquent and $1,731 in bribes taken from the License Office. The known total at noon was $66,439.35.

Foreman Andrews called a meeting of the leading members of the Grand Jury shortly after 8 o'clock this morning. Expert Douglas Young was immediately sent to examine the accounts of the License Office. Deputy District Attorney Harris, representing Byington's office, and Chairman H. U. Brandenstein of the Supervisors' Finance Committee were summoned to the conference. It was decided to look at once into the affairs of the Treasurer's office, and to examine every book and voucher and count every dollar in the vaults. The action of the Grand Jury is no reflection upon the integrity of Treasurer John McDougall. But Foreman Andrews and the officials who met with him this morning are agitated at the loose and reckless system practiced by Deputy Treasurer Devoto. That Smith's personal and unaccounted check for over $15,000 was taken and cashed by Devoto without a word of inquiry or the least hesitation is regarded as criminal carelessness. True, the Deputy Treasurer shouldered the blame and admits that he should have acted with more precaution, but he says that when Smith asked the favor two or three days before his flight, already his personal checks to the amount of $400,000 had been cashed in the same way.

Foreman Andrews believes that Smith did not use all the money stolen from the city. He thinks that others were interested with the defaulting Tax Collector. His suspicions have been aroused, and though he will not yet mention names, he will make a determined and rigorous investigation. None will be spared by the Grand Jury, whatever their social standing or political affiliations. Censure will fall where it belongs, and if any were caught with "Tax Collector Smith in his wholesale robbery, they will be caught. Not a stone will be left unturned. The City Attorney has taken the preliminary steps to recover as much as possible from the residence and other property belonging to Smith in this city, but having been fled today. The surety company which is on Smith's bond will make up any deficit.

Mayor Schmitz said today that an expert was making an examination of the Treasurer's office, in which, he declared, there evidently has been gross carelessness. Referring to the fugitive Tax Collector, the Mayor said: "In round numbers, Smith got away with $40,000 of Southern Pacific tax money, the $10,000 check Devoto cashed for him and smaller amounts from individuals elsewhere, bringing the total up to about $68,000."

"Besides that there was the $185,000 taken last year—two fortunes really in a year that Smith has embezzled. "The most charitable view that I have yet heard of the matter is that Smith is insane. No sane man could have acted as he did, even when infatuated with a woman."

A former actress, to whom he paid much attention, is reported to have gone to China, and there is a suspicion that he also may be traveling toward the Orient. HE IS REMOVED.

At a special meeting this afternoon the Supervisors formally removed Smith from the office of Tax Collector. According to the Bulletin when Smith left this city last Wednesday he was accompanied by a woman, who on the previous night had said she was going to Hot Springs, Arkansas, "to meet a man who had made $50,000 in one day."

PRISON REFORM OAKLAND WANTS DEFEATED HEADQUARTERS

LOS ANGELES, April 28.—Part of Governor Pardee's proposed prison reform program will be a dead letter for two years, although the last Legislature approved certain measures which were intended to make the idea effective.

Among the new statutes on the subject, passed in Sacramento last winter, was one transferring from the State school at Whittier all male inmates more than sixteen years old who were to be sent to Ione.

Superintendent Greely of the Whittier school, said today that the proposed removals to Ione have been abandoned entirely, as it was found that no funds were available for the purpose. The Legislature provided the way, but had neglected the means.

COULD NOT GET OUT OF UNION PACIFIC

NEW YORK, April 28.—Geo. J. Gould has resigned from the directorate of the Union Pacific.

It was said today in explanation of Mr. Gould's resignation from the Union Pacific directorate that he had been elected to the distinct understanding between him and the controlling interests in Union Pacific that he would resign from the directorate if he decided at any time to build the Western Pacific.

Mr. Gould's action follows the understanding of the $50,000,000 of Western Pacific railway bonds. The Western Pacific is the Gould extension to San Francisco, paralleling the Central Pacific at a distance starting from 150 to 50 miles all the way from Salt Lake to San Francisco.

QUITE BOSTONIAN. "Oskosh people," remarked the pernicked idiot, "are getting quite Bostonian in their ways."

"What's the answer?" queried the easy mark.

"The last time I was there," explained the p. l. "I saw a sign in a tailor's window that said: 'These Pants Only $3.00. Marked Down From $10.00.'"

FIRST THROUGH TRAIN

LOS ANGELES, April 28.—Although the first through train between Los Angeles and Salt Lake City on the San Pedro, Los Angeles and Salt Lake Railroad will start from each terminus next Monday, no arrangements have been made for carrying mail to points along the line. It was said today that unless the commercial organizations of this city take up the matter at once by telegraph with the Postoffice Department at Washington, Las Vegas and the mining camps of that vicinity will continue indefinitely to be served by stage route as at present. It now requires five days for a letter to reach the territory in question, whereas the new Clark line will make the trip over night from Los Angeles.

THREE SITES ARE OFFERED

ALAMEDA COUNTY WANTS PROPOSED UNIVERSITY FARM.

SACRAMENTO, April 28.—Governor Pardee, Senator E. F. Welch, Horticultural Commissioner Elwood Cooper and President Benjamin Ide Wheeler, of the State University, four of the five commissioners charged with the selection of a university farm, held a meeting today. Lieutenant-Governor Anderson was not present. Offers of a site for the farm were made by citizens of Davisville, and citizens of Esparto, on behalf of Yolo county.

Alameda county made three offers, all in the vicinity of Haywards. The commissioners decided to extend the time for receiving further offers until July 1. In the meantime, the commissioners will arrange to inspect the sites offered.

STANLEY'S UNIQUE MONUMENT. The grave at Pribright of the late St. Henry M. Stanley is to be commemorated by a monument twelve feet long, four feet wide, two feet six inches in thickness and weighing six tons. The stone was found in Devonshire, after a long search to comply with Lady Stanley's desire that a monument should be erected to the famous explorer which had been "fashioned by the ages, tempered and colored by time and untouched by man."

The only exception to the latter provision is in the inscription, which bears the explorer's name and also the name by which he was known to the natives of Darkest Africa, "Bula Matari," says Rock Reporter, New York Tribune.

DATE OF BATTLE DEPENDS UPON ROJESTVENSKY.

Japanese Await His Move to Commence Sea Fight—Ships Closing in.

TOKIO, April 28, 4 p. m.—The movements and intentions of Rear Admiral Rojostvensky continue the subject of general interest, and speculation here.

The last Japanese reports are conflicting and confusing, failing to indicate definitely the purpose of the Russian admiral.

It is evidently the intention of Admiral Rojostvensky to await a junction with the third division, under Rear Admiral Nebogato, when he will give Vice Admiral Togo a decisive battle.

It is assumed that Admiral Rojostvensky will bring all his ships and guns, possibly can into action if he intends to make a decisive fight, or will detach and abandon the slow, cumbersome and useless ships if he intends to run the gauntlet for Vladivostok, which is believed to be his ultimate destination.

The date of the coming conflict will depend entirely upon Admiral Rojostvensky himself.

The Japanese will act upon the defensive, their plan of action being concealed with absolute secrecy.

WARRANT FOR HER

Grace McNaughton Now Charged With Disturbing Peace.

SAN FRANCISCO, Ap. 28.—And now a warrant has been issued for the arrest of Grace McNaughton, who figured in the sensational robbery of Mrs. Thomas Main of Oakland, widow of the late South African millionaire. In a complaint sworn to by Mrs. Harriet Zansen she is jointly charged with her sister, Mrs. Maude Ramsey, with disturbing the peace, and the warrant issued by Police Judge Fritz is now in the hands of the police.

The memorial presented by Wu Ting Fang has been confirmed by an imperial edict abolishing punishment of the families and relatives of criminals. The edict also abolishes torture in the case of criminals and witnesses.

MISSIONARIES ARE CAPTURED

NEW YORK, April 28.—Another version of recent rumors that the Chinese Ambassador to Tibet has been murdered is carried by the Herald's correspondent at Peking, who says:

Four French missionaries have been captured by savage tribes in the vicinity of Batang, which is situated near the frontier of Szechuan and Tibet. The Chinese Assistant Ambassador was murdered while trying to effect their rescue and it is reported that the missionaries also have been put to death.

The Chinese government refuses passports to foreigners for this part of the country as it is not under effective control.

The memorial presented by Wu Ting Fang has been confirmed by an imperial edict abolishing punishment of the families and relatives of criminals. The edict also abolishes torture in the case of criminals and witnesses.

ODDITIES.

A curious old document showing how shells in the shape of wampum deteriorated as currency on Manhattan Island is found among the minutes of the Burgomasters and Schepens, of May, 1650, at the meeting in Fort Amsterdam, New Netherlands. The account reads: "Whereas we see and need for some time have seen the decline and depreciation of the loose wampum, among which is found much unperfected and only half-finished, made of stone, glass, bone, shells, horn, ray even of wood and broken; therefore, we have resolved that henceforth no loose wampum shall be current unless it be of the shape of a wampum shell, and shall pass as good as heretofore at the rate of six white or three black beads for one silver (2 cents). Done, resolved and decided this 30th day of May, 1650 at our meeting in Fort Amsterdam, New Netherlands."

That pure-food bill in the United States Senate has had about as hard a struggle as had the measures of Wilberforce in the British House of Commons for the abolishing of the slave trade. On February 15, 1808, Wilberforce moved, without entering into any argument, for a bill to abolish the slave trade after a limited time, and a committee to consider its propriety. He had been introducing such a bill for almost every year for fifteen years; although by a two-thirds resolution against that traffic were carried in 1789 without a division. But year after year the bill came to naught, either in the House or Lords on the Common's suffering defeat in 1796 because several of its supporters had gone to see a new comic opera. It was doomed to disaster again in 1807, and finally succeeded in 1807.

of Japan counterbalances any disadvantage from a shortage of battleships.

They rely upon the personal morale of the crews and the superior mobility and condition of their fleet to bring them victory.

Extending comparisons beyond the first ships of the line, it is argued that Japan possesses preponderating valuable advantages in her lighter cruisers, her torpedo-boats, torpedo-boat destroyers and in her submarines.

SOON TO JOIN.

ST. PETERSBURG, April 27, 11:15 p. m.—According to the calculations of the naval staff, Vice-Admiral Nebogato, who left Liburti, French Somaliland, March 25, if he has been making 200 knots per day, should reach Singapore tomorrow and could not unite his division with Vice-Admiral Rojostvensky in Tonquin until May 5.

The general opinion is that their junction is assured on the theory that Admiral Togo would not dare to risk sailing south to meet Nebogato, since by so doing he would leave the way to Vladivostok open to Rojostvensky.

KAMRANH BAY, via Saigon, Cochinchina, April 27.—The only ships remaining in Kamranch Bay are four German transports. All the rest of the transports and the Russian hospital ship, Orsk, and other vessels left behind by Admiral Rojostvensky left the bay yesterday morning. This fleet is now assembled outside the bay and forms an extended line stretching from Cape Varel to the head of Kamranch peninsula. Torpedo boats are scouting in all directions. The ships seem to be awaiting Vice-Admiral Nebogato's division.

The French cruiser Descartes having on board Admiral de Jonquieres, the French commanders in these waters, returned to Saigon after the capture of the Russian squadron and subsequently returned to Saigon.

The two freight boats, captured by Admiral Rojostvensky, were under the German flag. It is presumed that they are suspected of having contraband of war on board.

SECRETARY OUT OF PRISON

SAN JOSE, April 28.—L. B. McMahon, secretary of the local Chamber of Commerce, was arrested last night on a charge of embezzling $300 of the funds of the organization. The complaint was made by J. H. Kucker before Judge Benson and McMahon was promptly arrested. His bail was fixed at $10,000, but the accused man failed to obtain bondsman and spent the night in the county jail. He was arraigned this morning before Judge Benson and his preliminary examination was set for Tuesday. Bail was reduced to $7500 and was furnished during the day.

McMahon denies that he has misappropriated the funds of the Chamber of Commerce, and insists that he was entitled to every cent secured by him upon a commission and that the directors on the other hand, assert that McMahon was compensated on a salary basis and misappropriated a large amount in the neighborhood of $1500. Experts are now at work on the books and will soon render a complete statement. Sensational stories to the effect that McMahon has been throwing money away in gambling and amusement are denied by him. He declares that he will not resign as secretary of the organization or surrender the keys to the headquarters. Regardless of the position McMahon, the directors of the Chamber of Commerce met this morning and declared the office of secretary vacant. W. H. Stacy was appointed to temporarily fill the vacancy.

"SCAB" NEGRO TEAMSTERS ARE ATTACKED.

Scenes of Rioting on Streets of Chicago—United States Soldiers Are Present.

CHICAGO, April 28.—Soldiers seen on the streets in the business districts here gave rise to reports that troops from Fort Sheridan had already been ordered to Chicago to suppress rioting in connection with the wholesale sympathetic strike growing out of the troubles of the garment workers and teamsters.

Rumor had it that the "regulars" were quartered in the new postoffice at Fort Sheridan it was denied that any troops had been sent to Chicago as a result of the strike.

Scenes of violence in connection with the strike began promptly today, the first victim being a colored teamster employed by the A. M. Forbes Cartage Company, who was chased by a mob in Desplains street and kicked and beaten into insensibility. Arrival of a squad of police put an end to the disturbance. The negro was taken to a hospital, where he was found to be severely cut and bruised.

UNION PICKETS. The greatest number of union pickets were stationed today about the new postoffice. The non-union teamsters are housed in these stables. Special details of police were sent to the stables to protect the non-union men, as it was feared that the most serious disturbances would occur in the vicinity of these barns.

Judge C. C. Kohlman of the United States Circuit Court today granted an injunction to the Employers' Association of Chicago restraining all persons from interfering with the movements of the association's wagons upon the streets.

or in any way obstructing the business of members of the association. The injunction is temporary and is returnable May 10. It is specifically directed against the Teamsters' Joint Council of Chicago.

POLICE ESCORT. Employers today were aggressive in reacting with non-union teamsters. Under the escort of seventy policemen twenty-four wagons were sent out from Marshall, Field & Co.'s stables, notwithstanding that the street in front of the company's barns was crowded with teamsters and strike sympathizers. Non-union teamsters on the twenty-four wagons were jeered and hooted at by the mob, while a number of teamsters wearing union buttons attempted to form blockades. Prompt action by the police forced a passage for the non-union conveyances.

Closely guarded by a hundred private detectives eight wagons owned by the Employers' Teaming Company left the stables in Eighteenth street on a trip to the foot of South Water street.

Fifty negroes from the South, who are to take the place of strikers, arrived in a box car today. They were placed on coal wagons belonging to the Employers' Teaming Company and taken to the barns of the company. They were thrown from windows at the new corners, but the negroes escaped injury.

Immediately following the granting of the injunction the Chicago Employers' Association discarded all its wagons with notices reading as follows: "The United States Circuit Court has enjoined interference of any kind with this property and its drivers."

TRADES COUNCIL MEETS

SODA BOTTLERS WANT THE PROPRIETORS TO UN-IONIZE.

Preparations for active work along various lines were made last night at the meeting of the Building Trades Department Council of the Central Labor Council. There will be a special meeting held next Wednesday evening when several changes will be made in the personnel of the official staff. The importance of the matter of vital importance is to be presented in regard to the immigration of Asiatics and arrangements made for a great mass meeting of the working people of Oakland to protest against the coming of the yellow hordes.

President Peiry of the Central Labor Council was present last night and spoke on topics of the day. The speaker was the master of the defuncting treasurer of the Lumber Workers' Union was discussed at length. The union is ambitious with the council it was decided that if the man should be found guilty of which the members are certain considerable doubt, every effort will be made to have the extreme penalty of the law administered.

At the meeting of this union at the headquarters of the Central Labor Council last night it was decided to begin an aggressive campaign for the purpose of forcing these soda factories to have their hands unionized. Nearly half the factories here employ "unfair" bottlers and thereby limit the sphere of usefulness of the union.

The delegates from the local to the Central Labor Council were instructed to make a report of the condition of affairs next Monday night when the Council meets, and to make a report of the condition of affairs next Monday night when the Council meets, and to make a report of the condition of affairs next Monday night when the Council meets.

DON'T FORGET THE DATE.

The fourth anniversary ball of the Laundry Workers will be given Saturday evening, April 29, at Germania Hall, corner Seventh and Webster streets. A good time assured to all.

GRAND PARLOR OFFICERS

NATIVE SONS CHOOSE LEADERS—SESSION IS CLOSED.

MONTEREY, April 28.—Grand President, James L. Gallagher; first vice-president, W. D. Wagner, second vice-president, M. T. Dooling, third vice-president, C. M. Belshaw; grand secretary, H. Turner; grand treasurer, John E. McDougald; grand marshal, John T. Skelton Jr.; grand inside sentinel, G. W. Colgan; grand outside sentinel, G. L. Farmer. Grand trustees—J. R. Knowland, 261 votes; Daniel A. Ryan, 246; H. C. Lichtenberger, 222; E. B. Jarvis, 208; Warren R. Porter, 198; Thomas Monahan, 190; F. A. Cuelier, 183.

each advanced one step and Senator Belshaw took the third-vice-president's place. There was at no time any serious opposition to Belshaw. It was all along conceded that Turner and McDougald would succeed themselves as secretary and treasurer, respectively.

In opposition to the wishes of the delegates the contest between Skelton and Henderson for the position of grand marshal was fought to its conclusion on the floor of the parlor. In the end Skelton won out by a substantial majority, not less than 191 votes against 103. The election of George L. Farmer of Calistoga as grand outside sentinel was a somewhat unexpected upset. Joseph Rose of San Francisco was the only candidate mentioned until yesterday, but Farmer, although getting into the fight late in the day, developed great strength and won by 262 votes against 128 cast for Rose. For grand trustees there were thirteen nominations. Usually the candidates polled votes as follows: J. E. Hayden 144, John H. Nelson 96, P. E. Zabala 88, M. H. Squires 93, F. Cady 58 and Nathan Coghill 43. The only one of the incumbent trustees to offer himself and be rejected was Hayden. This year San Francisco has only one representative on the board of grand trustees. Usually the metropolis has at least two.

When it came to a show-down in the fight for the privilege of entertaining the Grand Parlor in 1906 Ventura developed more strength than Chicla and won by 155 votes to 129. The delegates from the South had been very active in stirring up sentiment in favor of Ventura. Announcement was made by the delegates from Ventura that next year a fight will be made for naming that town as the place for the Grand Parlor in 1907.

WILL MARRY ABOARD STEAMER

Next Saturday, when the steamer Queen returns from her trip out to sea with the excursionists who go with the Alameda County Christian Endeavor Union, she will bear with her a newly made bride and groom.

The ceremony will be performed when the steamer is about three miles beyond the lightship, and Rev. Dwight E. Potter will officiate. The prospective bride and groom are Miss Ruth Humphreys of Santa Rosa and Robert Parker, foreman of the Taylor Company's lumber yard in this city.

The groom resides with his parents at 2343 Poplar street, and is one of the most popular workers in the Alameda County Christian Endeavor Union. He is one of the members of the committee in charge of the excursion.

After the return of the Queen to this city the young couple will start immediately on a short honeymoon trip. They will reside in this city.

OAKLAND TRIBUNE

W. E. DARGIE, President

Business Office and Publishing House, 413-417 Eighth Street, Oakland.

The New Bicycle Ordinance.

The new bicycle ordinance which the Ordinance and Judiciary Committee has decided to report to the Council for passage is another case of a mouse being born of the travail of a mountain. It is such a plain evasion of a public duty that one wonders why so much pains were taken to sit on an egg which was destined to be added in the beginning. It is an exhibition of moral cowardice worthy only the contempt of robust minds. In plain English a compact body of wheelmen have, for the half-dozen time, overawed the Council, not by the force or the justice of their arguments, but by the pertinacious and united front they present in their demand for an unjust and unlawful use of the sidewalk at the expense of the pedestrians to whose exclusive use the sidewalks are dedicated by law and custom.

The new ordinance prohibits wheeling on the sidewalks within the fire limits. Why it did not prohibit bicycle-riding on Lake Merritt is a wonder. Such a prohibition would have been no more farcical than the provision requiring bicyclers to dismount when approaching a pedestrian. Long experience has demonstrated that such provisions are treated with contempt. The present ordinance requires bicyclers to either turn out or dismount when passing a pedestrian, but the requirement is a dead letter. The police make no effort to enforce it and a large proportion of bicyclers make no pretense of complying with it. Indeed, the person bold enough to remind them of it is apt to be insulted and abused for his temerity. The wheelman can say what he pleases to the footman with impunity because he can get away before anything can be done.

Besides, public officials are habitually guilty of violating the dismount or turn out provision of the bicycle ordinance. The writer has frequently seen policemen off duty and in plain clothes pedaling by pedestrians in happy disregard of the law they were supposed to enforce. He has seen an official connected with the police court violate the ordinance three times in as many blocks. Furthermore, the fines imposed for violating the ordinance have been usually of such a trifling character as to give arrests an opera bouffe character. Policemen are instructed to take $2 bail on the street and let offenders go. In consequence, the majority of those taken to the police station are poor boys and girls, whose arrest excites commiseration. It is the natural result of a farcical enforcement of a farcical ordinance.

It is strange that a little common sense cannot be applied to this question. Of course some backbone is also necessary. The courts have fixed the legal status of a bicycle as a vehicle. As such it has no moral or legal right on the sidewalks, which are sacred to pedestrians. Notwithstanding the sophistry of certain bicycle riding attorneys the Council has no power to give wheelmen the privilege of using the sidewalks. The only thing it can do is to grant immunity from punishment for an invasion of a public right which is inviolate by virtue of an authority higher than any conferred on municipal legislatures. By refusing to provide proper penalties for misusing the sidewalks, the Council has virtually given bicyclers the right of way on that portion of the highways dedicated to the exclusive use of pedestrians over those possessing the only legal right to use them. The Council has again yielded to the pressure of village politics, and in so yielding has decided that Oakland shall retain the status of a village. Only villages permit bicycles to be ridden on the sidewalks and cows to roam in the streets.

The Sacramento Union has found out that alfalfa is a plant and indulges in a column of pleased talk over the discovery. The fact that the cows made the same discovery some centuries ago does not diminish the merit of the knowledge acquired by the editor of the Union. But for his accidental discovery he might have gone through life laboring under the delusion that alfalfa was a fruit pest or a malformation of old shoes. That would have been a misfortune. If he will push his investigation a little further, he will be able to inform his readers whether alfalfa bears tubers or berries. The editor of the Nevada City Miner-Transcript has already learned that it carries neither bead nor froth. He is not so sure, however, that it is not a variety of "blossom rock."

The Chico Enterprise has been industriously whooping for some time with the result that the whole neighborhood has the whooping cough.

The discovery that the food adulterators have been monkeying with baked beans explains the ground for the complaint that Boston's favorite Sunday morning dish lacks snap nowadays.

The blowing up of his auto has again rescued Fred Gebbard from oblivion. You can't keep a good man down.

The Oakland woman who sued her husband for divorce because he did not kiss her enough has her counterpart in the Chicago man who wants to divorce his wife because she kissed him too much. The two husbands ought to organize an anti-kissing society.

An All Night Ferry Service.

The Merchants' Exchange is again agitating the subject of an all-night ferry service. It is an agitation that may not provoke an immediate response, but will in time bring about beneficial results. Therefore it is neither untimely nor wasted effort.

An all-night ferry service is a growing necessity. It has been requested from time to time during the past dozen years, but the ferry companies have thus far declined to inaugurate one on the ground that it would not pay. The ground stated is probably true, but the community on this side of the bay feels the necessity for an all-night service nevertheless. We do not have one because public convenience does not square with the profit and loss accounts of the ferry companies.

While it is unreasonable to expect public service corporations to accommodate the public at a loss, it must be borne in mind that the ferry business is not to be segregated in particular divisions of the twenty-four. At times the boats are overcrowded, at others they are not a quarter loaded. The ferry companies owe something to the public. If the profits of each trip during certain hours of the day are excessive, they can afford to make two or three unprofitable trips at other hours. Public convenience has some claims on corporations granted the use of the public streets to furnish rapid transit accommodations.

Nevertheless, it is not to be expected that either of the companies will put on an all-night service unless there is a considerable traffic to warrant it. A necessity for an accommodation should exist before it is extended. The necessity for an all-night ferry service is in a sense debatable, because, in the absence of such a service, it is next to impossible to tell how many would avail themselves of it. The Merchants' Exchange is wisely trying to collect all the available information on this point, and the inquiry promises to make a showing favorable to the increased service.

It is the experience of all communities that a night service in growing communities develops traffic. It creates business. We believe an all-night service between San Francisco and Oakland would soon develop a traffic of large proportions that would in time become profit-producing. We do not believe such a service would pay at present, but as we said before, the ferry business is not to be split up in sections of the day or night, but, as a commercial enterprise existing by popular suffrage for the accommodation of the public, must be judged by the day as a whole.

The Merchants' Exchange has done well in taking the matter up, and we trust the effort to procure better transit facilities between Oakland and San Francisco will succeed.

SUPPORT YOUR OWN TOWN.

In season and out of season the OAKLAND TRIBUNE is a trade-at-home advocate. It has no patience with the person who goes to the metropolis in quest of goods to be had without crossing the bay. Hence this outburst: "Any Oaklander who goes over to San Francisco to buy his wedding ring deserves to get licked. That is all we have to say about it." And it's enough.—Napa Register.

HIGH SCHOOL TRUSTEES

NEW BOARD WILL DISCUSS SITE FOR BUILDING THIS EVENING.

ELMHURST, April 28.—This evening the first meeting of the High School Trustees will be held at the Elmhurst school house here and Fruitvale. For the first time in the history of the five districts included in the High School district they are W. F. Lynch, from the Elmhurst district; Joseph Damm of Melrose; A. H. Merritt of Lockwood; G. Hays of the Bay district and E. E. Cook of Fruitvale.

At the meeting there will be no formal business transacted as the board has not been organized and cannot be until all the trustees are present. A H. Merritt is at present in the East and will not return in time for the meeting.

SITE DISCUSSED. There will be a tentative discussion of the final site for the High School building. For the first time in the history of the five districts included in the High School district the children in that district are not numerous enough to occupy those rooms.

It is understood that the location of the High School will be somewhere between High street and Linda Park station and not far from the car line.

SOLID SUBSTANTIAL FLESH and good Brains are made from
Grape-Nuts
TRIAL 10 DAYS PROVES

Pupils from all portions of the district can then reach the school on a 5-cent fare.

NO HURRY. There is no present necessity for settling on the location of the building, as it will be three years before the law requires the building to be completed on its permanent site. However, it is probable that the site will be settled in the near future and an election called to vote the bonds to raise the money for constructing the building. It will not be long before the Melrose building will all be required for the grammar school pupils, and the High School will have to go elsewhere.

HOW THEY VOTED. At the election last month when it was decided to have the High School and to combine the five districts into one for this purpose, the vote in favor was very heavy in every district except Lockwood the voters were five to two for the proposition. In Lockwood they were nearly two to one against.

Four years ago the question was agitated and an election called. The result was made then of putting two questions to the voters at once. Shall we have a High School? and where shall we locate it? and the matter ended in the refusal of the citizens to give their suffrages for the proposition.

MRS. CAESAR YOUNG IS PRAISED

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

EMOTIONAL ACTRESS

ANALYZES CHARACTER OF MRS. CAESAR YOUNG.

BY CLARA MORRIS.

NEW YORK, April 28.—Some people argue that Caesar Young committed suicide. There was a bit of evidence given that, were I on the jury, would go far toward convincing me to the contrary. Show me the woman of women that a man loves and I will make a very fair estimate of that man's character. Look at these two women and see reflected the two sides of Mr. Young's character. Had he been married to the shallow, sullen-faced one and strayed to the refined, clever woman, ready of laughter, tender of heart, and had he stood to lose her and to be bound to the other for all time, he might well, in mad despair, have taken his own life. But not so the gentle, clear-voiced, charming woman who was his wife. She loved him—she knew it—but listen to this evidence:

"You knew of your husband's friendship for the defendant?"

"Yes."

"You and your husband lived together?"

"As husband and wife?"

"No, sir; not as husband wife."

Here was the true woman, who in decent self-respect held herself aloof from him in his wrongdoing; yet—O loyal wife—betrayed him to no one. Saved his pride, saved him from gossip and scandal, by this generous preference of conjugal happiness.

Now Caesar Young was the last man in the world to endure such a situation for a great length of time. To the extent of his ability he loved the woman he had married. Blessings brighter as they take their flight. Unattainable she became fairer than ever in the days of courtship. He respected her pluck, too, in refusing a polygamist's character. Look at these two women and see reflected the two sides of Mr. Young's character. Had he been married to the shallow, sullen-faced one and strayed to the refined, clever woman, ready of laughter, tender of heart, and had he stood to lose her and to be bound to the other for all time, he might well, in mad despair, have taken his own life. MAN'S DOUBLE LIFE

REVEALED BY DEATH.

NEW YORK, April 28.—Despatches from Pittsburg announcing that, by the will of David Jamison, who died there Saturday, it has been learned his real name was Jamison, that he had deserted his wife and three sons in Brooklyn forty years ago, have proved a great surprise to the only living son who still resides in Brooklyn and gains a livelihood as a stationary engineer. The will, which has just been opened, is in the nature of an atonement to the deserted family, as it gives them an estate worth $15,000. It shows that Jamison went to Pittsburg, changed his name and married another woman, who is now dead. She knew nothing of his double life, and the family in Brooklyn long ago gave up the husband and father was dead. One after another they dropped off, until now only the one son mentioned remains and he will receive the entire estate.

It appears that Jamison was stricken fifteen years ago with cancer and underwent numerous operations, losing his right arm by degrees, and finally part of his collar bone, but the disease finally won.

The surviving son tells a sad story of how his mother struggled to educate and support her children after the father disappeared. She took in washing and succeeded in her task, however, and when the sons grew up they supported her. She died last August. One of the boys lost his life accidentally three years ago, while the eldest died ten years ago. No word was ever received of the father from the day of his disappearance until reports carried to the tenement where the engineer lives word of his good fortune.

CUPID IS BEATEN

BY AN M. D. DIPLOMA.

NEW YORK, April 28.—Esculapian has triumphed over Cupid in the case of one Belleville girl, who has eschewed marriage for medicine.

Miss Aurelia Puderer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Puderer of Fifth and Abend streets, though young and fair, has vowed that before she gives heed to love's lures she will win a doctor's diploma. After that, well, after that one who comes a-wooing may have a chance.

When Miss Puderer was graduated Wednesday night from the Homeopathic Medical College of Missouri and acquired the degree of M. D., she realized an aspiration which had been hers since she was a child. When she was a mite of a girl and lived with her parents at New Athens, she was wont to "play like" she was a doctor. Playmates only interested her in so far as they were obliging enough to pretend to the possession of ailments which called for the ministrations of a physician. She plied them with mud pills until only their skill in pretending to take the make-believe remedies saved them.

Her dolls, less capable of strategy, but also happily less susceptible to deleterious drugs and healing devices, she dosed to her heart's content.

Putting aside, later, the pleasures and the admiration which belong to the girl of eighteen who is pretty, she became a medical student. For four years she journeyed to St. Louis mornings and back to Belleville evenings, studying hard at college. When she received her diploma Wednesday night she deemed that her reward was ample.

Miss Puderer is the first Belleville young woman to become a doctor. She expects to practice in Belleville.

SEALSKINS GETTING HIGH.

"Sealskins are going out of sight," remarked W. M. Brennan, New York, at the Hotel Pfister. "And they are getting scarcer all the time. Unless the United States takes some action to protect the seal they will soon become extinct. Sealskins that sold last year for $325, are worth $425 this year. The big sleeves now helps to make the price a little higher this year. The mink is perhaps the best wearing fur we have. Russian ermine and sable are popular but the sable is getting scarce. Mink stays strong in spite of its high price. There is a tendency to higher priced goods and people are wearing more genuine furs. They prefer to pay $50 for a short cloak of genuine fur to $50 for a longer one that is merely an imitation. Japanese lynx will be worn a great deal. It is an American fur, but has to be seen to help to be dyed. Our dyes here are not so lasting. In the cheaper furs the squirrel and the Japanese mink are the most popular. The Japanese fur is a genuine mink, but is a dirty yellow and has to be dyed. Chin-chilla from the Argentine republic is another of the higher priced furs that is worn a great deal."—Milwaukee Sentinel

LOVE FROM A BALLOON.

The Swedish aeronaut, M. Frankel, while engaged in an ascent, found that his balloon had sustained damage, and descended in the island of Oeland. The balloon came down in the park of a country house occupied by a large employer of labor, who was then celebrating the silver jubilee of his wedding. The unforeseen guest was welcomed and between him and the eldest daughter of his host there sprang up such a near approach to love at first sight that when the aeronaut left the pair were already engaged.—London Globe

We are never happy. Some one is always finding out that kissing is infectious, or that comfortable beds are deadly, or that something rather nice to eat gives rise to a disease with six syllables in it.

Two very old applications to the skin are—first, May dew, which the old chronicles tell us must be rubbed upon the face out of doors at 5 in the morning. July or August dew will be found equally efficient if applied at the same time and place. There are few greater beautifiers than the morning air if taken after one has had a good night's sleep.

BUSY ROUND OF SOCIETY EVENTS

WEDDINGS, RECEPTIONS AND LUNCHEONS KEEP SMART SET BUSY.

Before an altar and chancel with Easter lilies, Miss Bertha McElrath and Dr. Benjamin Bakewell plighted their troth last night in Trinity Episcopal Church, Rev. John Bakewell, the father of the groom, assisted by Rev. Clifton Macon, officiating.

The "Lohengrin" march announced the arrival of the bridal party at 8:30, and the way up the hawthorn decked aisle was led by the bride's maids who were the five sisters of the bride the Misses Phoebe, Marion, Ann, Katherine and Hilda McElrath. They were gowned in dainty frocks of white silk and carried armfuls of white syringa. They formed a half circle around the chancel rail, making way for the bride who came down the aisle leaning on her father's arm.

The gown worn by the bride was her mother's wedding dress, and was fashioned of heavy white silk, lace and tulle. The gown had been but little altered, being almost as it had been when her mother wore it at her own marriage. The tulle veil was held in place by orange blossoms, and the bride carried a shower bouquet of white sweet peas.

The groom was supported by his brother, Walter Bakewell, and the ushers were Paul Miller, Vail Bakewell, Dr. Harold Hill, John Bakewell and John McElrath.

The church ceremony was witnessed by only the most intimate friends of the young couple, and the reception which followed at the bride's home was attended by only the immediate families.

A cosy little home has been prepared on Telegraph avenue, whither they will return after a brief honeymoon.

Engle, Mr. and Mrs. Wickham Havens, Mr. and Mrs. John Yule, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Luning, Mr. and Mrs. A. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. George W. McNear Jr., and many others.

CHURCH WEDDING.

A marriage of interest to friends in this city is that of Harry E. Long of San Francisco and Miss Georgie Bogue of Stockton, which will take place tomorrow at the First Presbyterian Church in Stockton. The Rev. J. W. Lundy will perform the ceremony, which will be attended only by relatives of the young couple.

After a short wedding journey Mr. and Mrs. Long will take up their residence in Mill Valley for a period of three months, when they will locate in San Francisco permanently.

Miss Bogue is the daughter of A. R. Bogue, now a merchant of Stockton formerly City Attorney. She is pretty and accomplished and has a host of friends. The groom is a well known San Francisco business man.

ANNUAL DANCE.

The first annual dance given by the Oakland Evening High School Alumnae Association will take place at Alcatraz Hall this evening. A one-act farce, "Aunt Charlotte's Maid," will precede the dance.

MISS MAYNARD WEDS.

Miss Edith Maynard, who resided for a number of years in this city, was married at Bakersfield on Wednesday last to T. F. Allen, an attorney of the latter place, where the young couple will reside. Mr. Allen formerly resided in Livermore, where he studied law in the office of G. W. Langan, who is now located here.

LARGE RECEPTION.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Button will celebrate their china wedding anniversary tomorrow evening with a large reception to be given at their home on Thirty-fourth street. About 300 cards have been sent out and the affair will be one of the largest of the season.

Mr. and Mrs. Button will be assisted in receiving their guests by Mrs. J. F. Emory, Mrs. Gilbert L. Curtis, Mrs. F. B. Ogden, Mrs. E. W. Owen, Mrs. W. P. Burbank and Mrs. Frank G. Watson.

INFORMAL DINNER.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Gray will give a complimentary dinner this evening to the High School basket ball team of which their son Floyd Gray is a member. The dinner is to celebrate the recent victory of the team, and will be a jolly affair.

The guest list will include Edgar Hurt, captain; Tom Coyne, manager; Floyd Gray, George Hirsch, Whitney Stow, Alexander McBain, Earl Borton, Stanley Burpee and Frank Boek.

WILL RETURN.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Palmer, formerly Florence Mason, who have been living in Calcutta, India, since their marriage a year ago, are returning here by way of Paris, where Mrs. Palmer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Mason, will join them. They will arrive here in May and are planning a six months' visit.

INFORMAL LUNCHEON.

Miss Mabel Gray entertained recently at a delightful luncheon planned for Miss George Strong, and her guest, Miss O'Brien. The tables were decorated with Dutchesse roses and after an informal hour at the luncheon, a musical scale was enjoyed.

OAKLAND CLUB.

After the business meeting next Wednesday at the Oakland Club Miss Bertha Chapman will speak on "Birds in Oakland Gardens."

The luncheon last Wednesday was one of the important events of this week, and the president, Mrs. Frances H. Gray, made one of the clever speeches of the day, announcing that the club had made Mrs. Bunnell their honorary president. The hostesses on this occasion included Mrs. William D. Smith, Miss Grace L. Trevor, Miss Lillian Swales, Mrs. H. L. Whitehead, Mrs. O. C. Voss, Miss Bessie Wood, Mrs. P. R. Stewart, Mrs. Edgar Stone, Mrs. W. W. Standford, Mrs. L. D. Tennant, Mrs. J. M. Torrey, Mrs. W. H. Weibye, Miss Helen Whitton, Mrs. E. C. Woolley, Miss Elizabeth Simpson.

AN ENGAGEMENT.

The engagement is announced of Miss Beatrice Snow to Earl Hamilton McCollister. The betrothal is the outcome of a romance begun when both young people were students at the University of California, where Miss Snow was graduated with the class of 1904, and Mr. McCollister with that of 1903.

FOR BEAUTY BOXING

HAS BECOME A FAD AMONG THE FAIR.

The quest of beauty comes to be a tedious thing when one must make it always alone. It takes a woman with heroic determination to do the little stunts by her bedside for five or ten minutes morning and evening. But when it comes to an exercise that can be taken with some one else and where the element of sport enters in—that's different.

That is how boxing has come to be a fad among the fair. For boxing needn't mean blood and black and blue spots and the sickening thud of blows on bare flesh, any more than fencing means battered skulls and slashed bodies. All the science and skill may be kept, with the brutality left out.

Any pair of bloomers will do to box in, and a shirt waist is as good as anything else. As for the glove, women should never use anything but a six-ounce glove. No woman can hit hard enough to hurt with that, and it is not too heavy for comfort after one gets used to it.

There are some women who have no right to box, and the way to find out whether you are one of them is to stand up before some one with gloves on and see how many hands seem to be waving through the air in your direction. If more than two, take off your gloves and try something else until your nerves are in better shape.

The first position is with the left foot slightly forward, the body covered with the right hand and the left swung out ready for a lead. And always the eye fixed on that of your opponent. The training of the eye is not the least of the disadvantages of boxing. And the one whose eye is quickest always has the best of it, for she knows just what the other intends to do and can be ready to meet it.

The defensive is not enough. There is plenty of good massage and exercise in sidestepping and in keeping the body well protected with first one arm and then the other, but that is only half of boxing. Always keep an eye out for an opening for a good lead, and the best boxers sometimes voluntarily take a blow for the sake of giving a better one while the opponent's guard is down.

When the opponent closes in with a strong lead, then is the time to dodge, and before she can recover clinch with both hands. Then, quickly freeing one hand, holding her close with the other, punch, punch, punch, unless—

All this time she is not standing still and taking your punishment. If she is as wide awake as you, even as you clinch she has thrown up an arm and broken your hold and begun to do a little business that will make you dance back and begin to spar again.

Two minutes are enough for one round, and the first two minutes will be the longest you ever spent. And it is surprising to find how the most sluggish blood will be galloping through the veins by the time the two minutes are up. And your breath will be chopped in short bits, and your face will be like a scarlet poppy after a good sprinkling; and the first thing you will want to do is to go and sit in an open window, but the first thing you must do is to deny yourself this very natural longing. Just sit down or lie down on a couch and get your breath back, and wipe the perspiration off with a towel.

You are entitled to three minutes in your corner instead of one, which you would get if you were a man fighting for a champion belt. Then up and at it again, beginning with the same position as before.

In boxing for beauty do plenty of sparring. This is a natural massage which makes pounds drop off where they are too many and come on where they are too few. The dodging and sidestepping bring the trunk muscles into play, and the woman who would be supple and slender should take her boxing as regularly as she takes her bath.

Unless you are in pretty fine form, one round is enough at first. But after a while, when you feel that you can go on breathing while you box, and your mind keeps steady, and you do not forget to keep your eye fixed upon your opponent's, you can box three rounds of two minutes each, with three minutes' rest between.

And this ten minutes with the gloves will give you the very best exercise in the world, bar none.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS.

To stop hiccoughs when the attack comes on press the pulse as hard as possible and hiccoughs will immediately cease.

For perspiring feet dissolve an ounce of sulphate of soda in a pint of hot water and rub the feet over with this every night and morning. Dust a little boracic acid into the stockings.

Remember that plenty of air and sunshine is the greatest foe to germs of all kinds, and that dust, which is responsible for the presence of the majority of germs, should be gathered with a damp cloth.

Anger, fear, anxiety are among the emotions or sentiments which literally poison our blood. It has often been said that evil thoughts are poisonous, the meaning being that they corrupt other people, but the real fact is that they poison our own bodies. By losing control of ourselves and indulging in anger, by yielding to anxiety, fear and unwholesome thoughts, we cause an irritation or disturbance which, according to the latest sayings of scientists, has the effect of producing a poison in the blood that may have serious consequences.

Never drop anything into the ear unless it has been previously warmed and never use anything but a syringe and warm water for cleansing the ears.

The ordinary "cold" in the child should not be so lightly regarded, and there should be special care for a longer time after the acute infectious diseases.

If the eyes are strained and inflamed with sleeplessness or fine work apply to the lids soft linen wrung out in boiling water. Use this as hot as can be borne and relief will be felt in half an hour.

"Gold in the morning, silver at noon and lead at night" is always used with reference to fruit. Most people think it means that the explanation of the proverb is that digestion is strongest in the morning, and weakens as the day goes on. But you will note that the proverb refers to fruit alone. It has to do with the digestive power only it should be applied to all foods. The real explanation is very different. It is that fruit freshly gathered is fitted for eating and lessens in value as the hours pass. That is true not of fruit only but of all vegetables. That which comes direct from the garden to the table is the most palatable and in every way best fitted for consumption.

CORBETT AND HANLON ON JUNE 2

Eddie Trains in Alameda; Billy Goes to Sheehan's Beach.

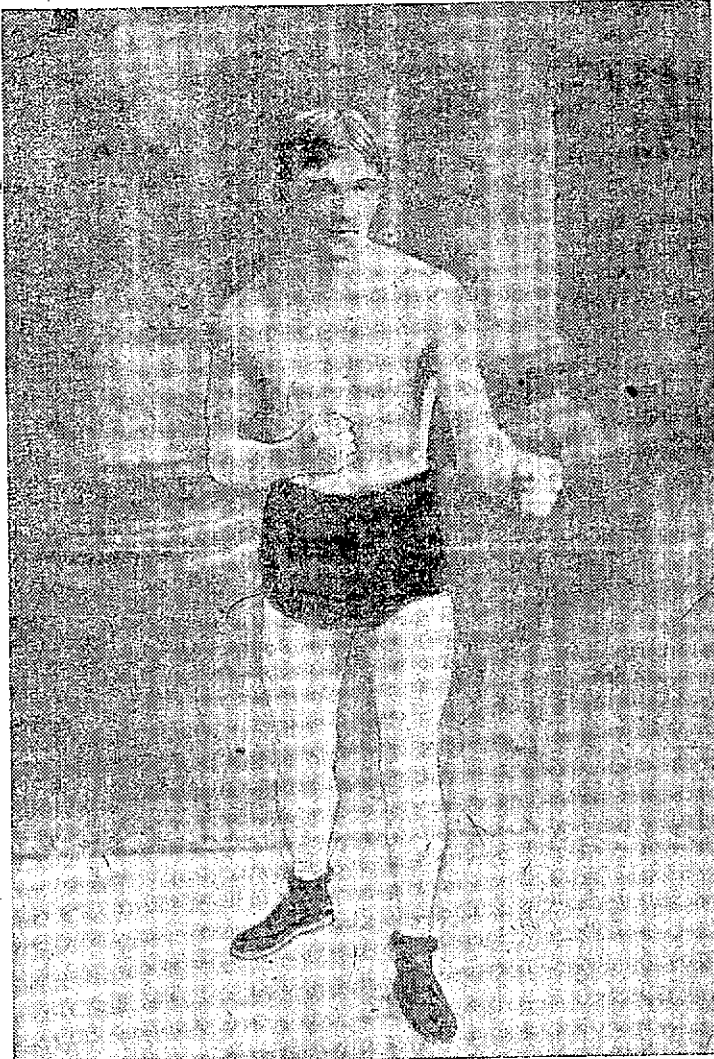

Eddie Hanlon and Young Corbett will swap punches under the auspices of the San Francisco Club in Woodward's Pavilion on the evening of June 2d.

This date was fixed upon last night, and today the boxers will begin to get busy with their training. Corbett will go to Sheehan's on the beach and Hanlon will make his camp at Croll's, in Alameda town.

Though fairly and squarely whipped by Corbett last time the two hooked up, Eddie is sure that it was overconfidence that caused his downfall. His advisers made him believe that he could beat the Denverite without half trying, and strengthened their argument by pointing to the first Corbett-Hanlon fight, during which the Californian several times had the man who licked McGovern on the point of collapse.

Many are of the opinion that the verdict after the battle in Mechanics' Pavilion ought to have been for Hanlon, so in a sense the coming bout will be in the nature of a saw-off between the pair of lightweights.

They are to meet at 10:30 o'clock. Corbett's double defeat at the hands of Battling Nelson have not undermined his confidence in himself. He says that never again will he take on a man heavier and stronger than himself. Hanlon is of the Denverite's size. Corbett has been in town several days. He looks good, feels better every where just as popular as he was before his string of victory was slashed.

LOUIE LONG.

Oakland Lad is in Perfect Condition.

[Special to THE TRIBUNE.]
MARTSVILLE, April 28.—Today Jack Cordell, as clever a lightweight as ever boxed in a twenty-four-foot ring, is due to arrive from San Francisco in company with his trainer, Frank McDonald. Cordell comes to fulfill an engagement with the Phoenix Club, and his contract with the club reads that he is to meet Louie Long, the hard-hitting Oakland fighter and a great local favorite, in a Queensberry contest that is slated to go twenty rounds—according to straight rules Saturday night.

Cordell has been preparing himself with much care down San Francisco way, and the three weeks in which he has had to condition himself should show him in good shape when he toes the scratch with the stout-haired lad.

The Frisco youth is a fellow who firmly believes in good condition and any time he enters the ring for an engagement his backers can always rest assured that he has been trained properly.

One thing is certain, Jack Cordell was never known to enter the ring in poor condition. He believes in plenty of hard work and he does it without flinching or without complaint. He likes the monotony of the dull thud of the punching bag against the ceiling and he also likes to box. He is never so happy as when he has a pair of boxing gloves on his hands.

Another thing, the tall fellow who is ambitious to meet Battling Nelson never dissipates, and this is a mighty good trait in a fighter. Cordell will do a little work at a local gymnasium and a couple of spins along the county road will put him just on edge for a hard battle. Cordell's manager, Morris Levy, will be up Saturday in his automobile and he will bring along a number of sports who usually beat a pile of money on the contests in which Cordell figures.

Out at Sutter City Louie Long is still grinding away at his hard training, and every one who has been out to see Louie praises him for the great condition he has worked himself into.

Long has certainly worked for this contest. He is a fighter, and he deserves much credit for his excellent shape.

Billy Bishop was out to see his charge again yesterday and last night he expressed himself as ready to back Louie for a good-sized amount. Bishop is of the opinion that Long will win from Cordell before the last round has been reached.

Barney Van Buskirk also visited Long's training quarters yesterday and he was well pleased with Long's condition. "He is better now than ever before," he said. "I saw him last night when he was in the ring, and he was in the best of his condition."

Long himself is tickled over his chances for victory. "The winner meets Battling Nelson," he said. "I want to be that fellow. I want to go at Nelson means much to me."

QUERY COLUMN.

[THE TRIBUNE has recently received numerous queries relative to sporting matters from subscribers, who depend upon the columns of this page to settle their disputes. It has heretofore been the policy of this paper to answer such queries through the mails, but the number of questions of general interest has so increased that it is deemed expedient to establish a query column. Only questions of general interest that cannot be answered by search in the ordinary books of information will be answered.—Sporting Editor.]

Interest in the puzzle, "How can a team make six hits in one inning without making a run?" is still with the baseball fans and the solutions sent in are as many as they are varied.

Now comes Al Engelhardt, who has followed the national game ever since the old days of the Greenhood & Morans and declares positively that it can't be done. He takes exception to the solution of Jake Baumgarten, another recognized authority, in the following letter:

Sporting Editor TRIBUNE: A team cannot make six hits in one inning without making a run. It is impossible, because when there are three out the side retires. A team can make five hits in this way: The first two hit safely and are thrown out at second. The next three hits all the bases. Not another hit can be made without bringing in a man, as another out would invalidate the hit.

Jakey Baumgarten's solution is that the last hit strikes a runner, but, in that case, it would not be counted a hit.

AL ENGELHART,
1030 Chestnut street.

A fan, who signs himself A. D., gives this solution:

Sporting Editor TRIBUNE: First man hits safe to leftfield, is safe on first, one hit, no outs.

Second man hits to centerfield and is safe, leaving man on first and second, two hits, no outs.

Third man hits to shortstop, who catches man advancing to third, leaving man on first and second, three hits and one out.

Fourth man hits to rightfield and all are safe, leaving men on first, second and third bases, four hits and one out.

Fifth man hits to shortstop, who throws man out at home, leaving man on first, second and third bases and two outs.

Sixth man hits to third baseman, who throws man out at home, leaving six hits, three outs and no runs.

Another writes:

Sporting Editor TRIBUNE: A singles and is safe at first, but is caught stealing second. B singles and is safe at first. C makes a short single, advancing B to second, but B is caught off second and thrown out. D singles, putting C on second. E makes a short single and the bases are full. F makes a short drive to left, on which E is thrown out at the plate. This makes six hits and no runs in one inning.

R. L. M.

Sporting Editor TRIBUNE: How many times have Jimmy Britt and James White met in the prize ring?

Answer—They are now preparing for their first meeting. White traveled all the way from England for a go with the clever Californian. They shook hands for the first time in San Francisco a week ago.

Sporting Editor TRIBUNE: Kindly advise me when the racing season at Emeryville will close.

Answer—Saturday, May 6.

Sporting Editor TRIBUNE: Why does Pitcher Schmidt have his baseball trofers made with two pockets.

Answer—That question has never been satisfactorily answered, but it is said that in one of his pockets he carries a sponge with which to moisten his fingers for the famous spit ball, when short on saliva.

LOCALS DROP BALL GAME NO. 3

Bill Devereaux Makes An Error; Three Seals Score.

If eight innings constituted a game of baseball, Oakland would have been shut out by San Francisco yesterday. But the rules and regulations say that nine innings make up the national game, unless circumstances alter, hence Van Halten's pet was saved from disgrace by totting up a run in the last period of playing. But the score was:

San Francisco 4.
Oakland 1.

"This said that Billy Devereaux lost the game for Oakland. At any rate he fumbled the leather when he should have held on tight and when all souls had been counted the Seals were credited with three runs.

Dempey's, have survived the latter, and have no trouble in keeping the wolf from the door. Reagan is in business in Brooklyn, and is at the head of the ring. Tommy White of Chicago, another of Dixon's opponents, is alive, but Cal McCarthy, who left the amateur ranks to give Dixon the toughest fight of his life, has been dead many years.

Steve O'Donnell of Australia, a clever but unfortunate heavyweight, is boxing instructor at Harvard University. Tom Williams, another antipodean, and one of Rosebud, when the plot of that country, is an instructor at West Baden. Billy Edwards, Barney Aaron and Jim Mace, the real veterans of the ring, are well and able to keep moving and they do not complain of hard times. Joe Choyinski tries his skill with the gloves occasionally with indifferent success. Joe Walcott recently issued a challenge to fight again, but it is believed that he is out of the game.

Among the little fellows, those who were stars a dozen years ago, Billy Murphy is still in harness. Billy Plimmer, Oscar Gardner, Edie Gardner, the heavyweights, are still in the game. Bell and Johnny Lavack are living and faring pretty well. Jack McCallum makes books in summer at the track and is often seen with Brooklyn Jim Carroll, another old-timer. J. C. Corbett is acting and prospering. Owen Ziegler fights once in a while and Fiedler Palmer gets his name into print now and then by fighting in England.

F. STRATTON LOSES TO MAUD

SAN RAFAEL, April 28.—Golf enthusiasts were plentiful yesterday at the links of the San Rafael Golf Club, where tournament is in progress to determine the championship of the Pacific Coast Golf Association. The majority of the club members and a large number of visitors sat on the shaded veranda of the clubhouse, and with powerful field glasses, watched the players make the round of the links. C. E. Maud, who played in such great form Wednesday, and who, with a score of 166, ranked first among the sixteen who qualified, played up to the same standard yesterday and defeated Stratton with 2 up and 3 to go.

Yesterday's scores follow: Forenoon—first match play around—Maud defeated Stratton 6 up, 5 to go; Carpenter defeated Colcher 2 up, 2 to go; Beaver won from Ellis by default; Harvey defeated Crooks, 6 up, 1 to go; Lawson defeated Brown, 4 up; Black defeated Lilly, 8 up; 6 to go; Curtha won from Casey by default; Kales defeated Davis, 4 up, 3 to play.

Afternoon, second match play around—Maud defeated Carpenter, 3 up, 2 to go; Harvey won from Beaver by default; Lawson won from Black, 3 up, 1 to go; Kales defeated Curtis, 4 up, 3 to go.

The semi-finals between Maud and Harvey and Lawson and Kales, are being played today. The winners in these two matches will play for the championship on Saturday.

Outside of the championship games, some very interesting matches were played on the links yesterday. In a practice game this morning Mrs. R. Gilman Brown, reputed the best woman player on the Coast, made the nine holes in forty-three strokes. As the bogey score is 42, this is considered remarkably good playing.

Dr. Theo. Olmsted who has just returned from the East has resumed his practice in Oakland with offices in Union Savings Bank Building. Dr. Olmsted has made a special study of rectal diseases and has been very successful along these lines.

ST. PETERSBURG, April 28.—Permission has been granted to publish in the capital a Jewish paper in the Hebrew language, to be called The Way. So far as known this is the first time a paper published in Hebrew has been printed in Russia.

The newspapers resent the protests in the British press over the capture of ships loaded with contraband bound for Japan, persistently pointing out that they display no concern about the many ships bound for Vladivostok which were taken by the Japanese.

RELIANCE CLUB FOUNTAIN IS WRESTLER YESTERDAY'S STAR

Herbert Duncan (Olympic Club) won two titles in the wrestling tourney for the championship of the Pacific Coast at the Olympic Club last night. Duncan won the 145-lb. class out of a field of eight contestants. He won a fall from A. Pockwitz (Olympic) and R. L. Egan (Reliance) and downed M. P. Rapp (Olympic) in the final bout.

Rapp had won from John Simpson (Olympic) and E. J. Phillips (Olympic). Duncan won the 135-lb. title by defeating Chester Terrell (Olympic) and getting the decision twice over W. Gindler (Olympic) in the final tangle.

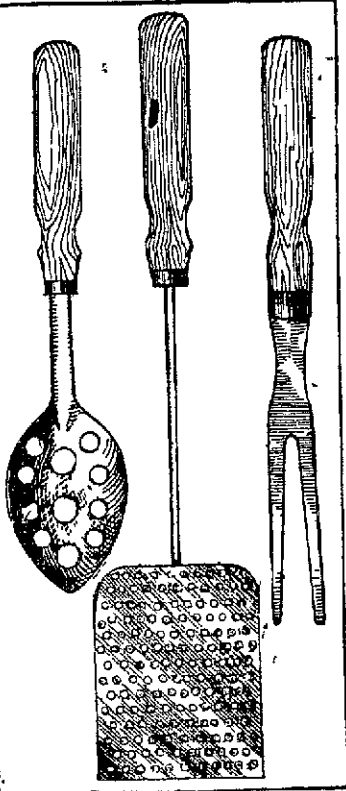

Alexander McKerron made short work of the other two entries in the light heavyweight class. He easily felled E. E. Ransom's shoulders to the mat and then twice threw Earl Tschumi.

estuary just south of the yards where many acres of land are being reclaimed by the Government dredgings taken from Oakland harbor.

More than one hundred acres will be reclaimed in this manner and the railway employees are speculating on the ownership of the land. It is generally believed that the land will become the property of the Southern Pacific under its title to the water front land.

When the Government made its appropriation to improve the harbor a bulkhead was being along the bulkhead line or two hundred feet from the low water line. Then the dredging began and gradually the reclamation was accomplished.

MAKES A RECORD

The principal subject of conversation at the railroad shops today was the remarkable record made by Superintendent William McKenzie in overhauling the big ferry steamer Solano. When it was decided to remodel the steamer the plans and specifications were submitted to McKenzie with a request that he give an estimate of the time that would be required to do the work.

After looking over the plans McKenzie gave it as his opinion that he could turn out the work within ninety days. The heads of the various departments laughed at him but he was not discouraged. He went to work with his characteristic determination and three months after the Solano went upon the ways she was again in the water, having been thoroughly overhauled.

LAYING NEW TRACKS

New tracks are being laid opposite the machine shops to store engines while the contemplated repairs are being made in the round-house. The old turn table in the round-house will be taken out and a new cement foundation put in. This will take about twenty days but the work is deemed necessary as the old table was in bad condition.

WILL MOVE SHOPS

The company is planning to reconstruct the entire system of the yards within the next few years. The machine and blacksmith shops will be moved to the foot of Kirkham street to be near the new shipyard and the present site will be used for a shop for light repairs.

Later, the planing mill, car, shop and store house will be removed to Kirkham street and a new freight depot will be erected.

GENERAL NOTES

The mill has made a new sand blast for the glass to be used in roofing the new narrow gauge ferry building. The glass will be sand-blasted at the yards.

Engines Nos 1341, 1636 and 1337 are undergoing repairs at the back shops. Several car loads of crude petroleum have been received at the Pinish gas works and the oil is being placed in the tanks.

William Lane of the repair department has gone to Tuscan Springs for a week's vacation.

Edward Driscoll who was struck by a piece of steel chipped from a cycle bar is rapidly recovering and the physicians now say that he will not lose his eyesight.

WANT CASE TRANSFERRED

District Attorney Allen and C. E. Snook are engaged in the preparation of a motion to have the case brought by Harry Morse in San Francisco against the Board of Supervisors here to keep them from going ahead with the work of building the scenic boulevard along the Contra Costa foothills transferred to the courts in this county. The hearing is set for May 3 before Judge Sloss and at that time an effort will be made to have the case brought and tried in this county.

The reason for this," said District Attorney Allen this morning, "is that the calendar is in such a crowded condition here that we can only get an hour at a time and it means the spoiling of a whole day for us. The action properly belongs in this county, anyway and if we could get at it here we could finish it in a day."

THE ENIGMA

OAKLAND, April 27, 1905. Editor TRIBUNE: I notice that you have a query column in your paper, so as one of your readers I would like to ask you why do they call Alameda the Enigma City? Thanking you in advance for your answer. Yours truly,

[The name is derived from the Spanish word enigma—mystery. The site of Alameda was covered with oaks—Editor.]

PROMINENT POLITICIAN DIES

CENTREVILLE, Iowa, April 28.—General H. H. Wright, acting adjutant general under Governor F. M. Drake, died at his home here today. General Wright was a prominent citizen.

CUPID VISITS PRISON

God of Love Wins Where Parent and Priest Fail.

For many months Annie Saville, a pretty widow girl has had the terrible title "Incorrigible" written after her name.

The blotter at the City Prison contains her name many times, yet there always seemed something worthy to be saved in the child, and, summer though she was, those who came in contact with her stated they had seen glimpses of a soul in the young lady.

At least a dozen well intentioned persons, including Miss C. Anna Whit, strove to reclaim the soul of the young girl, but they were never able to reach the inner consciousness of the wayward lass.

The girl listened patiently to the remonstrances heaped on her, but after the severe lecture she plunged once more into the merry whirl with a reckless laugh.

After parent priest and prison authorities had given the child of sin up as lost there came a great reformation and now the young girl on the high road to happiness, content and a new life—perhaps.

Cupid the little god of love, powerful to destroy, yet more powerful to save, was the agency through which the conscience of Annie Saville was reached.

When she heard the voice of love summon her she listened and obeyed. The voice that spoke to her told her to be virtuous and good. She immediately harkened to the call and reformed.

Yesterday was the climax of her joy. She was married to Thomas Robert, the man she loved. He took her from a prison cell.

The bride who has just reached her nineteenth year promises that henceforth her life will be a model one. She wishes to go away with her husband and begin life over again where the memories of the dark hours spent in jail because of her badness will be forgotten.

THEY FAVOR MISS KELTON

HER WORK AT YE LIBERTY IS APPRECIATED BY MANY.

Editor TRIBUNE—Would you kindly allow space in your valuable paper for the purpose of stating a few of the many admirers (and they are legion) to express themselves respecting her ability to hold and please an audience. Throughout the entire engagement of the little lady at Ye Liberty playhouse her work has been such as would time and time again—bring forth applause that would ring from the pit to dome. The lights and shades of her acting were so distinct as to throw out a solid picture.

She is earnest in her endeavors, pleasing in her personality and undying in her efforts to please and hold her listeners. In witnessing her performances characters as Ophelia in "Hamlet," Dolores in "In the Palace of the King," Phyllis in "When We Were Twenty-One," and a portrait of Katharine in "Old Heidelberg" are character simple in its simplicity—alone stamps Miss Kelton an actress of ability.

We are sorry to lose from our midst so pleasing a character.

MAY DEPORT BOY TO HOLLAND

An effort is to be made to deport Eugene Legros under the provision of the present immigration law, which provides for the deportation of an alien convicted of a felony within two years of landing in the United States. He is finally sent to America. He made his way to San Francisco and through the consul there was given a place out at the home of General Long whose kindness he repaid by stealing curos stored in the basement of the house and selling them, and finally took the General's bicycle, which is made a felony under the statute and punishable by imprisonment at San Quentin.

The matter was called in court this morning and continued for two weeks and in the meantime the District Attorney's office will try and bring the statute providing for the transportation of such persons back to the land they came from into play with the view of sending him back to Holland.

TAKE MONEY; OVERLOOK WATCH

J. M. Yore, a real estate agent residing at 2058 Grove street, reported to Chief of Police Hodgkins this morning that his residence had been entered yesterday afternoon by burglars and $5 in cash taken from a bureau drawer. The thieves overlooked a gold watch and silverware and also a pistol. The robbery was committed according to Mr. Yore between 9 o'clock and 9 30 o'clock in the afternoon. An entrance was effected by the use of a key.

Abraham Boswell residing at 326 Thirty-third street, reports his house was entered yesterday also and $10 worth of silver forks, knives and spoons stolen. From the dissimilarity of the two burglaries it is not thought that the same parties are responsible for the two thefts.

CALIFORNIA JOURNALISTS MAKE A HIT.

Fred Lawrence and Willis Thompson Electrify Syracuse By Making a Model Newspaper.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., April 28.—The Evening Telegram of this city has been purchased by Frederick W. Lawrence and Willis S. Thompson, two experienced newspaper men of the advanced school, who are making a pace in evening journalism that is an eye-opener to the public. The first issue of the Telegram under the new management appeared last Monday, and to say that it was full of ginger is drawing it mild. The success it is meeting is proof that the new journalism has caught on with a rush in Syracuse.

Mr. Lawrence and Mr. Thompson are both well known on the Pacific Coast. Lawrence is a San Francisco boy and got his early training on the Examiner. Since leaving San Francisco he has proved himself a first-class man in New York, Boston and Chicago and is recognized as one of the cleverest of the group of bright young men William R. Hearst brought out of the West when he invaded the newspaper field in New York.

Mr. Lawrence is a brother of A. M. Lawrence, who established the Chicago American for Mr. Hearst and who is now the managing editor of the New York Journal. When A. M. Lawrence was managing editor of the San Francisco Examiner and Oliver S. Orlick was one of the most capable men on the staff.

Frederick W. Lawrence has been in the employ of Mr. Hearst for twenty years, entering his service contemporaneously with Mr. Hearst assuming control of the San Francisco Examiner by gift of his father, the late Senator Hearst. For the last five years he has been one of Mr. Hearst's managing editors, being employed in important capacities in New York, Chicago and San Francisco. The new management of the Telegram in Cuba prior to the outbreak of the Spanish war. He is familiar with every department of a great newspaper and thoroughly understands the art of presenting news in an attractive form. He also possesses the news faculty highly developed. He grasps points and possibilities quickly and never lets a good thing go by him. The spark and the happy character of the Telegram's news carries the impress of his personality.

Willis S. Thompson, Mr. Lawrence's associate in the ownership and management of the Telegram, is also a trained newspaper man of wide experience and progressive methods. At different times he has been associated with the Denver Post, the Denver Republican, the San Francisco Examiner and the Cincinnati Commercial Tribune. Mr. Thompson is manager of the Telegram's business department. Mr. Lawrence is editor-in-chief. The motto of the paper is "Beats the news." In the salutatory new publishers announce that the Telegram is absolutely owned and controlled by them and is "independent to the extreme of danger."

They are making good this assertion, for public matters have never before been treated with such breezy freedom in Syracuse as they are being treated now by the Telegram. Yet the paper is good-natured and fair, and its dashing way of dishing up news is entirely free from prurience or malice. It is needless to say the paper has caught on immensely. Syracuse evidently likes the style of Mr. Hearst's bright young men.

THEY GAVE STRENGTH

QUICKER THAN DOCTOR'S TONICS, SAYS TYPHOID PATIENT.

Young Lady Left by Fever in Very Weak State Uses Dr. Williams' Pink Pills With Gratifying Results.

After a fever, such as typhoid or scarlet, has run its full course there remains the recovery of strength. Physicians who have treated the disease in a skillful manner are often inclined to believe that the patient will take care of itself as of relatively small importance. Invalids know that to be weak is to be miserable and they are always anxious to find a tonic that acts speedily.

The tonic that will most rapidly increase the red corpuscles in the blood is the one that will most quickly restore color to the pale cheeks, strength to the weak and elasticity to the sluggish nerves. So far nothing has ever been produced superior to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for this purpose. The experience of Miss M. M. is simply a charming instance of the promptness and thoroughness of their action.

Miss M. M. had been ill with typhoid fever for fourteen weeks. She had a good physician who carried her safely through the critical stages of that disease. When he left the case, nothing remained to be done except to build up her strength, which was very feeble and to give her some prescriptions for that purpose. Here, however, she met with disappointment.

"I took the doctor's tonics," she says, "but two months after I had recovered from the fever, but they did not do me the good I looked for. My strength came back so slowly that I scarcely seemed to be making any progress at all. I did not need any more medicine, in our yard some striking testimonials showing what wonderful blood-builders and strength-givers Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are. I got a box of them soon after this and had taken only about half of them when I could see a very great improvement in my condition. They helped me so rapidly that when I had used up two boxes, I felt that I did not need any more medicine. I have remained strong ever since."

Miss E. B. Mendenhall lives at No. 1501 Park street, Quincy, Ill. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are the best remedy to use in all cases of weakness, from whatever cause the system may be run down. In cases of debility due to overwork they not only minister fresh strength but overcome all nervous symptoms. They are a specific for anemia or bloodlessness; they rapidly make pure, rich blood.

They are particularly helpful to girls who are on the verge of womanhood. Used at this time they insure perfect development. They also meet all the requirements of the period known as the change of life. They quickly correct springing and languor, the weak digestion and rouse up every sluggish organ to healthful activity. No other tonic combines so many virtues. All druggists sell them.

U. S. Grant Post, G. A. R., on Memorial Day, and from 9 a. m. until late at night the veterans of the two armies will mingle.

Senator Blackburn of Kentucky is to deliver the oration of the day at Grant's tomb. It will be the first time that Confederate veterans have marched with Union veterans in this city.

According to the plan the veterans will first parade in Brooklyn. Thence they will go by boat to Grant's tomb overlooking the Hudson. Luncheon will be served aboard the boat and after the exercises the entire party will return to Brooklyn by water, where dinner will be served.

The U. S. Grant Post two weeks ago voted unanimously to invite the Confederate veterans' camp to parade with the post, and a committee which attended a meeting of the Confederate veterans' camp has received the acceptance of the latter.

TOWN DECORATED.

Incandescent electric lights are to be the special feature of the decorations of the town for the day of the celebration of the Alameda county Odd Fellows tomorrow night.

The lodge itself is having put up strings of the lights around the plaza and radiating from the back of the lodge poles to telegraph poles a block away. Besides this nearly all of the merchants whose places of business front on the plaza are having similar displays prepared on a smaller scale.

Dozens of strings of lights are stretched across the streets. The globes are rented by the Suburban Electric Light Company, which is having them put up for the subscribers. All colors are represented, and there are over 2,000 lights to be used in decoration alone. Work has been begun on the construction of a large tent, 50 by 40 feet, for the tables where is to be eaten the grand supper at midnight.

Fifteen cooks have been engaged and arrangements are being made to feed 1,200 guests. A contract has been let for 1,000 pounds of beef and 250 pounds of ham. Proportionate quantities of other light refreshments will be provided.

"My little daughter was a mass of sores all over her body. Her face was eaten away, and her ears looked as if they would drop off. I called in three doctors, but she grew worse. Neighbors advised Cuticura, and before I had used half of the cake of soap, and box of ointment, the sores had all healed, and my little one's skin was as clear as a new-born babe. OPPOSES BILL.

BOSTON, April 28.—Congressman Samuel W. McCall, in an address before the Beacon Society here has strongly opposed the adoption by Congress of a railroad rate bill, the passage of which he declared would be a violation of certain great and essential principles of government and likely to be followed by far-reaching and disastrous consequences.

WILL NOT OPEN HASTE STREET

BERKELEY, April 28.—The Town Trustees have decided to abandon proceedings for the opening of Haste street. Errors in the notices issued to property owners are said to have made the proceedings illegal so that protesters could have the quashed in court. The protesters have agreed to bear all the expense incidental to the work of opening the street that has been incurred by the town to date.

SMART WOMEN OF PARIS IN THE SALONS.

University Instructor in French
Compares American Women
With European Ladies.

BERKELEY April 28.—One of the most interesting of Professor Dudeney's lectures in French, dealing with French women in various situations in life, was delivered last evening, when he spoke at the University of California of the literary salons of Paris, and the part played in them by

THE YOUNG PHYSICIAN

What His Experience
Proved.

In the early sixties it was usually the duty of a practicing physician to ride many miles every day on his regular round of visits upon his patients. In those days a young man who had received a splendid medical training in one of the best medical colleges of that day was accustomed to ride ten, twenty or thirty miles or more visiting the sick and afflicted. His success was soon phenomenal. Doctors and families called him for consultation to towns at considerable distances by rail. One of his specialties was the cure of those distressing diseases of women. He had early discovered that by combining the vegetable extract of the following medicinal plants in just the right proportion without the use of alcohol his prescription invariably cured such cases. Later, in order to place this remedy before the public in a shape easily to be procured, he established a laboratory at Buffalo, N. Y., where regularly qualified chemists were put in charge to accurately prepare his prescription and put it in shape for shipment to all parts of the United States. This remedy, which he named Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, is not a "patent medicine" in the common acceptance of the term, but a tonic for women, and a regular physician's prescription, and contains the following non-alcoholic ingredients: Golden Seal Root (Hydrastis Canadensis), Lady's Slipper (Cypripedium Pubescens), Black Cohosh (Cimicifuga Racemosa), Urtica Root (Chamaecrista Nuttallii), Blue Cohosh (Caulophyllum Thalictrifolium), scientifically prepared by experienced chemists at the laboratory of the World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce does not claim for his "Favorite Prescription" that it is a "cure-all," but that it is a "cure-all" for women. It is recommended as a most perfect specific for woman's peculiar ailments. So uniform are the results which follow the use of this remarkable remedy, that it can be truly affirmed of "Favorite Prescription" that it always helps and almost always cures. Ninety-eight per cent. of the women who give this medicine a fair and faithful trial are cured and remain cured.

It is a powerful invigorating tonic, imparting health and strength in particular to the womb and its appendages. The local, womanly health is so intimately related to the general health that when diseases of the delicate womanly organs are cured the whole body gains in health and strength. For weak and sickly women who are "worn out," "run down" or debilitated, especially for women who work in store, office or schoolroom who sit at the typewriter or sewing machine, or bear heavy household burdens, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription will prove a priceless benefit because of its health restoring and strength-giving power.

Test.

"I want to tell you of the great improvement in my health since taking your 'Favorite Prescription,'" says Mrs. H. S. Jones, of Forest, N. C. "When I began its use I was a physical wreck and had despaired of ever having good health again. Could not sit up all day. I noted a great improvement before the first bottle was all used. Was suffering with almost every pain that a woman is subject to, had inflammation of the ovaries, painful and suppressed periods, and other symptoms of female disease. After taking six bottles of 'Favorite Prescription,' I felt like a new person. Can ride horse back and take all kinds of exercise and am not tired."

Feel crampy?—Cause of constipation. A man or woman who neglects constipation suffers from slow poisoning. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation. One little "Pellet" is a gentle laxative, and two a mild cathartic.

the women of Paris Professor Dudeney said:

"The idea of founding ladies clubs for literary purposes is essentially Anglo-Saxon and would hardly please Parisian women. Such serious associations, as we see here in America, organized into sections, and deluged with lectures and courses of a highly scholarly trend would remind them too much of school, and university, and sullen professors. Besides, men and women in French society are not accustomed to separate meetings, they join together, either for pleasure or for instruction. Therefore, instead of clubs we find in Paris a few 'salons,' in which literary men 'connoisseurs,' and, generally speaking, appreciative gentlemen and ladies, are welcomed and entertained."

"The development of such 'salons' is a part of the history of French literature. Their activities were uncountable and ridiculous sometimes, as we can see in Les Femmes Savantes or Les Precieuses Ridicules of Moliere, but, upon the whole, they helped in training up the literary taste of the Nation. In the eighteenth century, for example, such 'salons' as those of Madame du Deffand, Madame de Lespinasse, Madame Geoffrin, possessed great influence over the contemporary literature."

But, all along the nineteenth century their influence declined progressively. We see in 'Immortal,' a novel of Alphonse Daudet published in 1880 that twenty-five years ago, they were doing anything but enlightening and exalting in favor of some literary men, against some others, making and unmaking Academies. And, a few years later, in 'Le Monde ou le Non-Monde,' the comedy written in 1891 by Edmond Rostand, we can observe a new tumble of French literary 'salons,' and their caricatural imitation by provincial society."

However, in the contemporary Paris there are still many literary 'salons,' there are illustrious and ineffective, bright and useless survivors of a glorious past. The house of Princess Mathilde who died recently, was the most famous of them all.

"But too many 'salons' stand in competition so that they neutralize each other. In front of them against them new groups and new influences arise. Literary circles which do not concern with society people any longer. Literary critics whose criticisms bring success or failure to the books of the day. Literary industrialism, which by means of announcements and puff, widens the circle of readers, and quickly withdraws all literary influence from the narrow sets. Moreover, the contemporary writers do not care so much as their predecessors for feminine suffrages and one after another desert the literary 'salons.'"

Therefore, salons 'now-a-days' instead of presiding over literary activity of our time and possessing influence over the minds of the writers, give themselves to trifles, and divert themselves with childish or complicated amusements. The hostesses of such salons are no longer ladies of a good literary taste but simply leaders of snobs liking eccentricity more than originality."

Mr. Dudeney gave a detailed example by describing to his audience a "salon" which he knew personally, the "salon" of Madame Jane Dieulafoy. He pictures the lady hostess her husband, the sort of people with whom they were acquainted, and how they used to amuse the company, in their weekly meetings with society plays composed by themselves.

Mr. Dudeney concluded his lecture by saying that the literary man cannot get anything by being frequent guests of such "salons," but a few doubtful "good fortunes" and some far more certain humiliations.

"NO AUTOS IN CHINATOWN."

NEW YORK April 28.—Eight sight-seeing automobiles will be barred from the streets of Chinatown hereafter by order of Police Commissioner McAdoo, who recently expressed himself rather freely on the subject of slumming. No attempt will be made to prevent the sight-seeing from entering Chinatown, but they will be compelled to leave their conveyances a short distance away from the Bowery.

In announcing the new rule, the Commissioner holds the cars are so large that fire-fighting apparatus cannot pass them in the narrow streets of the Celestial quarters and that in case of fire lives were endangered by the presence of the automobiles.

Officials of the companies conducting the tours declare Mr. McAdoo is mistaken as to the size of the cars, and that they will test his order in the courts.

POSTMEN CANNOT BE FIREFMEN

Alameda Carriers Can Only Hold One Job at a Time.

ALAMEDA, April 28.—Uncle Sam will not permit the postmen of the Alameda Postoffice Department, or clerks in the office, drawing pay from the Federal Government, to draw salaries from the municipality while serving as "call" pay firemen. The decision, which affects a number of the letter carriers, was received yesterday by Postmaster Theodore W. Leydecker from the Fourth Assistant Postmaster-General at Washington, and is final. No employee of the postoffice can retain two jobs at one time. That is the dictum, and while it recently led to Postman Percy R. Fox resigning the position of school census marshal, it is now to be applied still further in the case of postmen-firemen.

The postmen who are given the alternative of quitting one job or the other are Percy R. Fox, Howard Simpson, who is a brother of City Attorney M. W. Simpson, and Edgar J. Jarrett. All of the carriers interested in the decision received from Washington were formerly volunteer firemen. For years they received no pay from the city for valuable services rendered in fighting fires. When the department was reorganized on a pay basis they were made "call" men, being paid a specified amount for attending to each fire. Now the Fourth Assistant Postmaster-General has spoken, and there is no danger of the postmen dropping a mail sack to run to a fire when an alarm comes in.

Fox is a member of Hose Company No. 5 of Court street, Jarrett belongs to Hose 1, formerly Thompson Hose, of Webb street, and Simpson has run with the apparatus of the Sherman street company.

After Mr. Fox was obliged to give up the census marshaling, which pays $5 or $6 a day for a month, the question as to the standing of the postmen-firemen was settled. Postmaster Leydecker wrote to the department for a ruling in the case, which arrived yesterday. The postmen are sorry to lose an opportunity to pick up an honest dollar occasionally in responding to fire alarms at night when they are off duty, and had hoped some exception might be made in their case. There have been no "bell" alarms, however, for some months, so that they have not had opportunity to receive any pay from the Fire Department.

RECEPTION FOR TEACHERS.

ALAMEDA, April 28.—The Alameda Unitarian Club gave a highly successful affair last night at the parlors on Grand street. The occasion being a reception for the public school teachers and school principals of this city. The pedagogues spent a delightful evening and light refreshments were served.

The reception committee was composed of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Otis, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Kollmyer, Dr. and Mrs. Weston O. Smith, Dr. and Mrs. Walter K. Scott, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Holt, Dr. and Mrs. George C. Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Sherwood, Mr. and Mrs. Alexander R. Baum, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Clark, Mr. and Mrs. P. N. Beringer, Mr. and Mrs. Brainard C. Brown, and C. E. Miller.

C. STILLER PASSES AWAY.

ALAMEDA, April 28.—Lewis C. Stiller, an old-time printer and a veteran of the civil war, was called by death at his home 525 Palace court, and his funeral, which is to be under the auspices of the Alameda Unitarian Club, will be held at 10 o'clock Sunday at 1 p. m. The deceased had been ailing for some months, but his demise was rather sudden.

Mr. Stiller was a native of Ohio aged 65 years and came to this coast from the East in 1864. He entered the war of the rebellion with Bennett's cavalry of the 1st Ohio Cavalry, and served under General Fremont. He was well known to the "craft" in San Francisco where he had been in the employ of the H. S. Crocker Company and other large printing companies. He was employed in the State Printing Office at Sacramento during the last session of the Legislature.

He leaves a widow Mrs. Marie Stiller, and a son Lawrence E. Stiller, who is a brother, Henry Stiller, resides in Oakland.

FUNERAL OF MRS. HUGHES.

ALAMEDA, April 28.—The funeral of Mrs. Hughes, wife of Dr. Walter R. Hughes, took place at 10 o'clock this morning from the family residence, 1201 Park avenue, being attended by many sorrowing friends. The impressive service was conducted by Rev. William Norman Guthrie, rector of Christ Episcopal Church. Floral remembrances were numerous. The interment followed in Mountain View Cemetery.

DEBATE DECLARED OFF.

ALAMEDA, April 28.—The debate between the Junior teams of the Oakland and Alameda High Schools is off. The local forensics artists say the Oakland team after all preparations had been completed. The meet was to have taken place on May 12, but now all bets are off.

ORGAN RECITAL TONIGHT.

ALAMEDA, April 28.—An event at the new First Congregational Church tonight will be the organ recital given by Wallace A. Bablin, the well-known organist of San Francisco to which the public is invited. The affair is one of the events of dedication week. The following program will be rendered:

Handel (Largo)—Allegro—Mendelssohn—Fugue (b) Menuetto, "L'Allegretto," (a) Adagio, "Suite" of the Treble and the Master. Chadwick

Lowell Redfield Mendelssohn in Paradise Duhon

"Fugue" of the Treble and the Master Chadwick

Doctor Brigham Says MANY PHYSICIANS PRESCRIBE Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

The wonderful power of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound over the diseases of womanhood is not because it is a stimulant, not because it is a palliative, but simply because it is the most wonderful tonic and reconstructive ever discovered to act directly upon the generative organs, positively curing disease and restoring health and vigor.

Marvelous cures are reported from all parts of the country by women who have been cured, trained nurses who have witnessed cures and physicians who have recognized the virtue of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and are fair enough to give credit where it is due.

If physicians dared to be frank and open, hundreds of them would acknowledge that they constantly prescribe Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in severe cases of female illness, for they know by experience it can be relied upon to effect a cure. The following letter proves it.

Dr. S. C. Brigham, of 4 Brigham Park, Fitchburg, Mass., writes:

"It gives me great pleasure to say that I have found Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound very efficacious, and often resort to my practice for female difficulties. My oldest daughter found it very beneficial for uterine troubles some time ago, and my youngest daughter is now taking it for a female weakness, and is surely gaining in health and strength."

I freely advocate it as a most reliable specific in all diseases to which women are subject, and give it honest endorsement.

Women who are troubled with painful or irregular menstruation, bloating (or distention), leucorrhoea, falling, inflammation or ulceration of the uterus, ovarian troubles, that bearing-down feeling, dizziness, faintness, indigestion, nervous prostration or the blues, should take immediate action to ward off the serious consequences, and be restored to perfect health and strength by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and then write to Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass., for further free advice. No living person has had the benefit of a wider experience in treating female ills. She has guided thousands to health. Every suffering woman should ask for and follow her advice if she wants to be strong and well.

"It Is Enough" (from "Elijah") Andante in G Baistie

THEATER PARTY.

ALAMEDA, April 28.—An enjoyable social affair on Tuesday night was the theater party given by the Alameda Club. The members crossed the city by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and then wrote to Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass., for further free advice. No living person has had the benefit of a wider experience in treating female ills. She has guided thousands to health. Every suffering woman should ask for and follow her advice if she wants to be strong and well.

PERSONAL MENTION.

ALAMEDA, April 28.—James E. Damon is to depart this week for a visit to the East. He is a native of Alameda, and James Williston of Dayton avenue and Paru street has returned after a nine-months' stay at Tonopah, where he completed the contract of putting in the water works there. He is to leave in a fortnight for Oregon City, Ore., where he will supervise the work on another contract.

George Combs is to take an extended trip through the country while on a vacation, using his motor cycle. He expects to leave shortly, and will go to Mount Hamilton, San Jose, Santa Cruz, Sacramento and other points on his tour. Joseph Morison, William Hammond Jr. and a few of their friends left this morning in a gasoline launch to visit Morison's cabin near the Coyote hills.

Last Hope Vanished.

When leading physicians said that W. M. Smith of Pekin, Ia., had incurable consumption, his last hope vanished but Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds kept him out of his grave. He says: "This great specific cured me and saved my life. Since then I have used it for over ten years and consider it a marvelous throat and lung cure." Strictly scientific cure for Croup, Sore Throats or Colds, sure preventive of Pneumonia. Guaranteed, 50c and $1.00 bottles at Ogden's drug store, Seventh and Broadway, and Twelfth and Washington. Trial bottle free.
